

2012 EQUAL JUSTICE CONFERENCE

presented by the

American Bar Association Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service and the National Legal Aid & Defender Association

Hyatt Regency Jacksonville Riverfront

Jacksonville, FL

May 17 - 19, 2012

Co-Sponsored by:

WELCOME! The Equal Justice Conference brings together all components of the legal community to discuss equal justice issues as they relate to the delivery of legal services to the poor and low-income individuals in need of legal assistance. The emphasis of this conference is on strengthening partnerships among the key players in the civil justice system. Through plenary sessions, workshops, networking opportunities and special programming, the conference provides a wide range of learning and sharing experiences for all attendees.

Pro bono and legal services program staff, judges, corporate counsel, court administrators, private lawyers, paralegals, bar association leaders and many others attend this event.

PRE-CONFERENCE ACTIVITIES TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, MAY 15 AND 16

*Pre-Conference Activities Available to Full Conference Registrants Only.

Management Information Exchange

New Executive Director Training

Tuesday, May 15 & Wednesday, May 16
9:00 a.m.— 5:00 p.m.

This two day training is newly updated and more relevant than ever. Designed for new directors of LSC-funded, IOLTA-funded, elder law, pro bono and protection and advocacy programs.

The training stresses both 1) knowing what should be done to lead an effective program, and 2) actually doing what needs to be done.

Trainers will include John Arango, MIE consultant, and members of the MIE Board of Directors.

Please register by April 20, 2012.

**Cost: MIE subscribers $315 Non-subscribers $415. This fee does not include Equal Justice Conference registration fee.

For more information, visit the MIE website at www.m-i-e.org, or contact Patricia Pap, MIE Executive Director, at ppap@m-i-e.org, 617-556-0288.

The ABA Center for Pro Bono

New Pro Bono Managers Nuts & Bolts Program

Wednesday, May 16
8:00 a.m. — 5:00 p.m.

Designed for new (in the position for one year or less) pro bono coordinators/managers, this program will address the basic elements of operating a pro bono program.

Topics include program structure and governance, intake and placement procedures, maintaining a client-centered approach to service delivery, strategies for effectively utilizing volunteers and ways to develop partnerships with the bar, bench, and other providers of legal services and other groups. Pre-registration is required.

**Cost: $125 (includes continental breakfast and lunch on Wednesday). This fee does not include Equal Justice Conference registration fee.

Space is limited. Cancellations must be received in writing no later than April 20, and are subject to a $20 penalty.

Pro Bono State Support and Access to Justice Coordinators Meeting

Wednesday, May 16

Noon — 4:30 p.m. **Invitation-only.

This invitation-only meeting is designed for statewide staff persons who address pro bono issues, whether as their sole charge or one piece of varied ATJ responsibilities. The focus of the agenda is pro bono, from topics purely pro bono in nature to the pro bono perspective of broader ATJ issues.

Cost: Free to full conference registrants

Law School Pro Bono Advisors Program

Wednesday, May 16

1:00 p.m. — 5:30 p.m.

Designed for law school pro bono program advisors, coordinators, directors and assistant and associate deans, this program includes several interactive workshops that will explore the unique aspects of operating and expanding a law school pro bono program.

Cost: Free to full conference registrants

From Noon — 12:50 p.m. there will be an optional networking lunch for an additional $40 fee. Please see registration form for more details.

The ABA Center for Pro Bono and the National Association of Pro Bono Professionals

Beyond the Basics: Technology — from Simple to Savvy

Wednesday, May 16

12:30 — 5:00 p.m.

Don't miss this rare opportunity to learn from pro bono professionals with "techie" know-how just what social media and technology can do for your program, from recruitment and referrals to training and a lot more. This session is designed to be hands-on and for people at all knowledge levels. So whether you are an uninitiated tweeter and technophobe or a pro bono blogger and Facebook afficianado, this session has something valuable for you.

Cost: Included with the basic conference registration fee.

The Equal Justice Conference

Self-Represented Litigation Network Educational Program

Wednesday, May 16
8:30 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.

This program brings together court, private and pro bono bar and legal aid practitioners in self-represented litigation. Educational sessions will cover a broad range of innovations, research, and collaborations, with a particular focus on the implications for state and local programs of changes in the national environment. A significant portion of the time will be spent in sharing and group problem solving. This pre-conference is open to all practitioners, including those working for and with courts, law and public libraries, law schools, and in unbundled representation, regardless of their participation in the Self-Represented Litigation Network.

Cost: $75 (includes lunch on Wednesday; breakfast NOT included). (Non-members interested in SRL issues are welcome to attend.)

Organizations and Firms Working Together Effectively on Pro Bono Impact Litigation and Transactional Projects

Wednesday, May 16

1:00 — 5:00 p.m.

Public interest legal organizations and law firms face unique issues when working together on impact or large scale litigation and/or transactional work. The purpose of the pre-conference is to have an open discussion of these challenges among peers. Topics will include best practices, co-counseling, staffing and working with other involved parties.

Cost: Free to full conference registrants

Legal Aid Managers and Staff Pre-Conference

Wednesday, May 16

1:30 — 5:30 p.m.

Designed for legal aid managers and staff, this program will focus on key developments in Washington and the field that will likely have a significant impact on legal aid programs now and in the future. The session will provide updates on prospects for LSC and non-LSC federal funding for FY 2013, developments at the Legal Services Corporation and other issues of interest to legal aid providers.

Cost: Free to full conference registrants
