“The proposed model rule is unnecessary and problematic. I oppose its implementation – please do not implement.”

Attorneys have rights too. They should not have their thoughts, opinions and beliefs mandated to them. Those with opposing views and beliefs need to be tolerant of their freedom of thought and speech awarded them under the Constitution.

RJC

---

Rick J. Collins