I am strongly opposed to the proposed changes to ABA Model Rule 8.4. It is shocking that my own profession, which should be a guardian of the First Amendment, would actually put attorneys at risk for exercising their rights to give legal counsel (speech) contrary to what they believe or engage in representation that violates their conscience. Please record me as a strong “No.”

David Fowler, Esq.
TN Bar No. 014063