Take The Lead In Shaping Technology Law for the Next Decade

William B. Baker
August 9, 2019
Examples of SciTech Leadership 2018-2019

• Blockchain: Book & SciTech Focus CLE Series
• Internet of Things: National Institute & book
• Climate Change: Supporter of TCFD
• Smart Cities: Program at Arizona State
• Artificial Intelligence
  – Blanket authority comments to NIST on artificial intelligence standards
  – Proposed Resolution for ABA House of Delegates
• BioTechnology and the Law
• CyberSecurity: January 2019 CLE program
• Food Law
• Quantum Computing
• Uniform Law Commission
• National Conference of Lawyers and Scientists
Cutting-Edge Live Programs

• Nanomedicine to Precision Medicine program at Renssellear
• Smart Cities program at Arizona State University
• Law Track at RSA
• “Talking Privacy with NIST” brown bag
• Internet of Things National Institute
• Showcase Program at ABA Annual Meeting
• Artificial Intelligence National Institute (in planning)
Webinars and more . . .:

- SciTech Focus on Blockchain webinar series (7 programs)
- Open Source Security; Beyond License Compliance
- Recent Developments in Standard-Essential Patent Licensing
- Looking Across the Table in Cloud Contracts CLE webinar
- Emojis Speaking Louder Than Words CLE webinar
Leading Publications:

- The SciTech Lawyer: 4 issues
  - Precision Medicine
  - Food Law
  - Privacy and Privacy Enhancing Technologies
  - Sustainability/Circularity
Leading Publications:

- Books
  - Blockchain for Business Lawyers
  - The Internet of Things: Legal Issues, Policy, and Practical Strategies
  - BioTechnology and the Law (2d ed.)
  - Cybersecurity (in progress)
Leading Publications:

Jurimetrics

• Summer 2018: Term of Art determinations in statutes, Personal Health Information, Death Penalty
• Fall 2018: Energy, Water, Food Nexus
• Winter 2019: Symposium on Rethinking Law in a Nexus Future
• Spring 2019: Cyberterrorism and Automotive Cybersecurity Regulations, Virtual Currency, Admissibility standards in Talcum Powder litigation,
E-Merging News

• Quarterly e-newsletter

• Up-to-date news and information about the Section

• Integration with SciTech website and ABA Connect
ABA & Social Media

- ABA Connect
- Committee newsletters
- ABA & SciTech website
- Social Media: Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook
In 2019-2020, SciTech Will:

- Remain in the forefront of new issues in the physical and life sciences and technologies
- Continue to deliver compelling membership value
- Generate informative and thought-provoking programs and publications
- Encourage the next generation of leaders