WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 15, 2012 -- The American Bar Association Section of Taxation will announce the recipients of its 2012 John S. Nolan Fellowships during a luncheon Feb. 18 at the section’s Midyear Meeting in San Diego.

Nolan Fellows are young tax lawyers who are actively involved in the section and have demonstrated leadership qualities.

The six 2012 Nolan Fellows are:

- Matthew J. Eickman, Utz, Miller & Eickman LLC, Overland Park, Kan.;
- Cathy Fung, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C.;
- Ivan H. Golden, Schiff Hardin LLP, Chicago;
2012 NOLAN FELLOWS, Add One

“The section is fortunate to have an extremely talented and committed group of young tax professionals among our members,” said William M. Paul, section chair. “We were pleased to select six awardees who represent the best and brightest in our organization and the profession.”

Each one-year fellowship includes the waiver of meeting registration fees and assistance with travel to section meetings.

The American Bar Association Section of Taxation is the largest professional association of tax lawyers, with approximately 23,000 members nationwide. Its goals include helping taxpayers better understand their rights and obligations under the tax laws and working to achieve a simplified tax system that is equitable and efficient.

With nearly 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional membership organization in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
