ABA TAX SECTION RECOGNIZES OUTSTANDING YOUNG TAX LAWYERS,
NAMES SIX 2013 JOHN S. NOLAN FELLOWS

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 4, 2013 – The American Bar Association Section of Taxation announced the recipients of the 2013 John S. Nolan Fellows during the section’s Midyear Meeting in Orlando.

Nolan Fellows are young tax lawyers who are actively involved in the section and have demonstrated leadership qualities.

The six 2013 Nolan Fellows are:

- Christina Crockett, Hunton & Williams LLP, McLean, Va.;
- Cynthia Kahl, Internal Revenue Service, San Francisco, Calif.;
- Sean J. Norton, Pinetree Legal Assistance, Portland, Maine;
- Samuel P. Weiler, Ernst & Young LLP, Columbus, Ohio;
- Zhanna A. Ziering, Caplin & Drysdale Chartered, New York, N.Y.

“We are very pleased to honor these exceptional young tax lawyers for their service to the section and the potential they offer,” said Rudolph Ramelli, Chair of the ABA Section of Taxation. “The section is fortunate to have such a strong group of young tax professionals as part of our membership.”
Each one-year fellowship includes the waiver of meeting registration fees and assistance with travel to section meetings.

The American Bar Association Section of Taxation is the largest professional association of tax lawyers, with approximately 23,000 members nationwide. Its goals include helping taxpayers better understand their rights and obligations under the tax laws and working to achieve a simplified tax system that is equitable and efficient.

With nearly 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is one of the largest voluntary professional membership organizations in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
