ABA TAX SECTION RECOGNIZES OUTSTANDING YOUNG TAX LAWYERS, NAMES SIX 2014 JOHN S. NOLAN FELLOWS

WASHINGTON, D.C., February 6, 2014 – The American Bar Association Section of Taxation announced the recipients of the 2014 John S. Nolan Fellows during the section’s Midyear Meeting in Phoenix.

Nolan Fellows are young tax lawyers who are actively involved in the section and have demonstrated leadership qualities.

The six 2014 Nolan Fellows are:

- Sean M. Akins, Latham & Watkins, Washington, DC.;
- Puneet Arora, Towers Watson, Arlington, VA.;
- Janine Burman, KPMG, New York NY;
- Guinevere Moore, Holland & Knight, Chicago, IL.;
- Anne-Marie Diggle Rábago, Rábago Business & Tax Law, San Diego, CA;
- Michelle Feit Schwerin, Capes Sokol Goodman & Sarachan, St. Louis, MO.

“These outstanding young tax lawyers have actively distinguished themselves in the section, and we are proud to honor them as Nolan Fellows,” said Michael Hirschfeld, Chair of the ABA Section of Taxation. “The section is fortunate to include such a promising and committed group amongst its membership.”
Each one-year fellowship includes the waiver of meeting registration fees and assistance with travel to section meetings.

The American Bar Association Section of Taxation is the largest professional association of tax lawyers, with approximately 23,000 members nationwide. Its goals include helping taxpayers better understand their rights and obligations under the tax laws and working to achieve a simplified tax system that is equitable and efficient.

With nearly 400,000 members, the American Bar Association is one of the largest voluntary professional membership organizations in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
