

The 18th Annual U.S. and Europe Tax Planning Strategies Conference will focus on developments in international tax planning with special attention to opportunities in Eastern Europe. Topics to be discussed include current investment fund models; opportunities for using European holding regimes for investment and trading operations; the latest in transfer pricing from the perspective of European and U.S. industry representatives; recent financial products and structures; and domestic and bilateral abuse concepts and their impact on planning

Firm: _____

Sponsorship Level:

Sponsorship Selection:

Primary Contact Name: _____

Primary Contact Email: _____

Invoice Contact Name (if different from primary): _____

Invoice Contact Email (if different from primary): _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____ / _____ / _____

Province/Country: _____ / _____

Telephone/Fax: _____ / _____

Sponsorship Fee: _____

Does your organization require an ABA certification of U.S. Tax Residency for VAT exemption?

YES

NO

SPONSORSHIP DISCLAIMER & PAYMENT INFORMATION

By completing this Sponsorship Commitment Form, the above-mentioned firm agrees to sponsor or exhibit this event or amenity at the amount selected above. The ABA Section of Taxation agrees to comply with the terms for the selected level. Please submit your firm's logo in a JPEG or EPS format when submitting this form. You will have the opportunity, prior to usage, to review and approve your logo.

Contact Signature: _____ Date: _____

(You agree that by typing your name above, this constitutes your electronic signature.)

Please complete this form electronically, save a copy to your computer, then email the saved copy, along with your logos, to Taxmem@americanbar.org.