THE ADMIRALTY AND MARITIME LAW COMMITTEE of the American Bar Association Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section

2018 ANNUAL LAW STUDENT WRITING COMPETITION

Co-sponsored with Gard (North America), Inc.

Submissions should address one (1) recent development in any area of admiralty and maritime law and must be no more than twenty (20) pages, double-spaced, 12-point Book Antiqua font, with footnotes and citations conforming to Bluebook standards.

Please submit all entries to tipsamlc@gmail.com not later than June 8, 2018.

The Competition Winner will be eligible to receive:

- $1,000;
- an invitation to experience a day in marine insurance with Gard (North America), Inc. in New York (travel expenses reimbursed up to $750);
- publication of the winning paper in the AMLC Newsletter; and
- an invitation to attend the AMLC’s Maritime Law Conference in New Orleans in March 2019 (expenses reimbursed up to $500).

The Competition Runner-Up will be eligible to receive:

- $500; and
- an invitation to attend the AMLC’s Maritime Law Conference in New Orleans in March 2019 (expenses reimbursed up to $500).

As part of the ABA TIPS, the AMLC brings together attorneys for plaintiffs and defendants, in house counsel, and academics to facilitate the exchange of information and ideas, and to be a primary resource for education and knowledge about admiralty and maritime law issues. Law student membership is free! Visit http://ambar.org/tipsadmiralty to learn more and join today.

Gard (North America), Inc. is a leading shipowner-controlled provider of P&I, marine, and energy insurance products. To learn more, visit www.gard.no.

The competition is open to all current U.S. citizen law student and LLM candidates. Papers prepared for classes, journals, or other publications are welcome. Membership in the ABA, TIPS or the AMLC is not required for participation. If you are a member of the ABA, please include your ABA membership number with your submission. Please visit the AMLC website for complete official rules.