The Transportation Megaconference was the first and continues to be one of the leading Transportation-related accidents involving trucks and motor vehicles remain a reality of corporate life for those businesses involved in the transportation of products and materials. Continuing education programs for those involved in all aspects of trucking company-related litigation, providing attendees with practical, nuts-and-bolts approaches to transportation litigation, a national forum to learn from the experts, and an opportunity to meet, network, and exchange ideas with industry leaders and outstanding industry lawyers, executives and specialists involved in the motor carrier industry.

The Transportation Megaconference always presents the best and brightest. This year, additional segments have again presented some of the nation's leading transportation experts from inside and outside trucking companies to address the wide variety of subjects which influence the daily operations of trucking business and impact upon critical litigation solutions.

McKinley, Hall, Hall & Martin, P.C., is pleased to announce that it intends to sponsor and participate in the Transportation Megaconference XIV, held this year in Los Angeles, California, on January 22-26, 2020. The conference is attended by professionals from the trucking business who come together to discuss and learn from each other in collaborative discussions on a variety of subjects that affect the trucking industry.
