ABA Section of Dispute Resolution

25/20 Young Scholar Program

The ABA Section of Dispute Resolution is inviting applications for our inaugural Young Scholar Program at the 25th Anniversary year and 20th Anniversary 2018 Spring Conference in Washington DC, April 4-7, 2018.

Scholars who are selected will receive:

• $50 registration to the Conference (a value of up to $325).
• Opportunity to interact with panelists, including leaders in the profession, which could lead to lasting professional relationships.
• Opportunity to publish during the conference.

Each scholar will be assigned to one session at the Conference. The Scholar will have an opportunity to interact with the panel prior to the conference, and will provide logistical assistance as needed. Each Scholar is required to write a summary of 250-300 words after the session. The summary will be posted, along with the Scholar’s name and organization, on the conference app and website.

Date: April 4-7, 2018

Location: Washington Hilton, Washington, DC

Eligibility: Attorneys with less than five (5) years’ experience who are members of either the ABA Young Lawyers Division or the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution’s Young Lawyers Committee, and students at an ABA accredited law school who are members of the ABA Law Student Division.

Please submit an application via this link before January 30, 2018.

After this date, if accepted to the program, the candidate will be contacted with their assigned session and instructions for how to register for the conference at the $50 rate.
