SPECIAL TASK FORCES – (Can serve in addition to other ABA YLD positions)

Men of Color Initiative (1 Year Term)
Throughout history, insurmountable obstacles have prevented men of color from achieving full success in society. This is even true in the legal profession. The Men of Color Initiative will serve as a resource for men of color during law school and in pivotal first years of practice; empower them to become leaders in the legal profession; facilitate an intergenerational support system; and encourage opportunities for community service and civic engagement.

Task Force on Law School Debt & Finance (1 Year Term)
Data shows that the primary concern of law students and young lawyers is paying back law school debt. The Task Force on Law School Debt & Finance will work to address this concern through novel member resources and committed policy engagement. The members of the Task Force will be asked to develop a mission statement, projects, member resources, and sound policy positions to be advanced by the YLD. The Task Force will have wide-ranging authority to develop any other ideas related to law school finance and debt that may address the concerns voiced by members, young lawyers, and law students.

✓ Obtain signed author agreements
✓ Create initial complete draft of Committee newsletters on a quarterly basis
✓ Interact and communicate with The Young Lawyer (TYL) editors, as necessary

LIAISONS
Expectations: Represent the YLD’s interests in ABA Sections, Divisions, or Forums and collaborate with these entities to provide content to YLD members.
✓ Some liaisons may serve as Co-Chair of the corresponding YLD Committee
✓ Participate in the entity’s activities and provide a young lawyer viewpoint where appropriate in leadership meetings or in programming
✓ Increase the frequency and quality of interaction with the appropriate ABA entities and the ABA YLD
✓ Ensure that the YLD is informed of your entity’s relevant activities and plans and vice versa. Specifically, this entails submitting quarterly reports to each group
✓ Maintain an open line of communication with corresponding YLD committees where appropriate
✓ Identify participation opportunities for young lawyers within the entity, particularly to accommodate those aging out of the YLD
✓ Encourage entities to co-sponsor events or programs with the YLD
✓ Communicate the stance or opinion of the YLD
✓ Approach their ABA entity and request that the entity contribute at least 3 pieces of content, programming, or otherwise and make opportunities available for young lawyers to be involved in that entity as part of the YLD’s Section Connect program.
✓ Help ABA entities expand their young lawyer offerings as detailed in the ABA YLD New Lawyer Roadmap.
✓ Train your successor

Position Requirements: Prior experience and active involvement in the YLD is highly preferred, as is an interest in the other entity’s focus area.

Time commitment: Ranges from minimal to significant and depends primarily upon the expectations and activities of the entity represented.
