

Elizabeth Overmoe

State Bar of South Dakota Strategic Plan Coordinator & Access to Justice, Inc. Co-Coordinator

Elizabeth Overmoe is the Strategic Plan Coordinator for the State Bar of South Dakota. As the Strategic Plan Coordinator, Beth works with state bar staff and volunteers to develop initiatives and programs to fulfill the purposes of the state bar strategic plan. The strategic plan covers an array of member and public service projects as well as initiatives under organizational governance and legal services. To fulfill Goal 2 of the strategic plan, Beth was appointed to serve as co-coordinator of Access to Justice in the summer of 2016. Beth works closely with Denise Langley on the implementation of as well as outreach and marketing efforts for A2J, Inc.

Prior to working with the state bar, Beth was a staff attorney and program director with South Dakota Advocacy Services, now known as Disability Rights SD, where she represented clients on issues related to the ADA, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Fair Housing, special education, social security, and guardianship/conservatorship before administrative agencies, circuit courts, and the South Dakota Supreme Court. In addition, she designed systemic teams to advance the agency's progress regarding special education, community integration, and abuse and neglect work.

Elizabeth received her undergraduate degree with a double major in psychology & criminal justice and a Spanish minor from the University of South Dakota. In 2010, she graduated from the University of South Dakota School of Law. Beth is a past president of the SD Young Lawyers Section, former District Representative, cabinet member and Leadership Advisory Board member to the ABA Young Lawyers Division, member of the National Association of Bar Executives and is the current SD Young Lawyer representative to the ABA House of Delegates.

LinkedIn

Facebook