

Melissa H. Luckman, Esq., was born and raised in New York, New York. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Long Island University in 2006 with PSI CHI Honors, and her Juris Doctor degree from Touro College's Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center in 2010.

Upon admission, Ms. Luckman became an associate at various firms, where she practiced in the areas of matrimonial, family custody, commercial litigation, trusts & estates, real estate, and civil defense litigation. At Touro Ms. Luckman is the Director of the Disaster Relief Clinic. As Director, Ms. Luckman works on Flood Insurance cases, Contractor Disputes, Real Estate Loss Mitigation, and NY Rising Cases.

She is a member of the New York State Bar Association, and was likewise admitted to Federal Court. Ms. Luckman was admitted to the New York State Bar in 2011, and was admitted to both the U.S. District Court Eastern District of New York, and the Southern District of New York in February, 2012. Ms. Luckman also holds her Real Estate Broker's License.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/melissa-h-luckman-gluszak-esq-95ba6582/>