ABA MAGNITUDE360 CLE SHOWCASE PROGRAM

Sunday, August 10, 2014  •  10:30 am to 12:00 pm
Room 207, Level 2,
Hynes Convention Center, Boston, MA

Advances in biotechnology and the life sciences are reshaping when life begins, how life is lived and when life ends. This course will explore how technological innovations have influenced, changed, transformed and created new legal, ethical and policy responses, as well as how existing policies have been or may be adapted to accommodate new technologies in medicine and science. By focusing on technological advances such as stem cell research, genetics and nanotechnology, this program will demonstrate that although the technologies may differ greatly, the ethical and legal challenges raised by each are quite similar. This program will engage the audience to consider whether existing laws and ethical frameworks are sufficient to address the concerns raised by these new technologies or if new approaches need to be considered.
