Description of Proceedings

The 2019 White Collar Crime National Institute will take place from Wednesday, March 6 to Friday, March 8, 2019, in New Orleans, Louisiana. On March 6, after the luncheon break, we will have a panel devoted to corporate general counsel, followed by a discussion with the heads of enforcement of the Department of Justice Criminal Division, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Commodities Futures Trading Commission.

In addition to those two plenary sessions, we will have three other such panels, including the much acclaimed panel of United States District Judges, an ethics panel of leading trial lawyers analyzing the complexities of representing multiple defendants in an investigation, and lastly, on Friday morning, distinguished speakers exploring the ethical issues and challenges that confront prosecutors, defense counsel, and legal commentators during high profile investigations.

Our average attendance each of the past two decades has exceeded 1,200 at this nationally recognized annual gathering of the national white collar bar. The Institute is proud to continue to present outstanding panelists who deal with some of the most significant and immediate issues of our time. This year we will continue to have the popular regional panels as well as the many analyses of recent developments in the various substantive areas that comprise white collar law. In light of the ever expanding globalization of the practice, several of the panels will tackle international issues faced by practitioners, including the complexities of foreign data privacy laws and the ever expanding role of monitorships in multi-country settlements. A group of leading lawyers from Canada, England, France, Germany, and Brazil will also discuss important recent developments in each of those countries that should be of interest to US lawyers.

Since its establishment in 1987, the Institute has been attended by leading federal and state judges and prosecutors, law enforcement officials, defense attorneys, corporate in-house counsel, and members of the academic community. The faculty regularly includes some of the top members of the white collar bar in the United States and abroad. Among the audience are nationally-renowned lawyers, as well as many who are beginning to concentrate in the white collar area. Attendees have consistently given the Institute high ratings for the exceptional quality of its publication, the panelists’ presentations, the valuable updates on new developments and strategies, as well as the rare opportunity to meet colleagues in this field, renew acquaintances and exchange ideas.

Once again, we will have three panels that will qualify for ethics CLE credit. The Institute will have excellent representation from the corporate sector and the judiciary, including Chief Judges Brian Jackson and Patti B. Saris, United States District Judges Denise Cote, Paul Friedman, Hon. Hayward Gilliam, Paul Huck, Amit Mehta, Carlos Mendoza, Carlton Reeves, and United States Circuit Judge Amy St. Eve. The general counsel of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), BAE Systems, Inc., Cloudflare, Inc., General Motors, FleishmanHillard, Ingersoll-Rand Plc, and PayPal will be participating, as well as senior members of the legal and compliance groups of Barclays Plc, Verizon, Computer Forensics Services, Google, Inc., Medtronic, and PIMCO. The Institute will also include senior members of the Department of Justice and distinguished members of academia.

Andrew S. Feldman, Moderator
Brian S. Cromwell, Sharan E. Lieberman, Hon. Jane Triche Milazzo, Ryan K. Stumphauzer

This panel will focus on jury selection, cross examination of cooperating witnesses and experts, and closing statements, address the dilemma presented by an inflexible plea offer, and propose strategies for taking specific cases to trial under those circumstances.

B. Foreign Recent Legal Developments of Interest to US Lawyers
Norm Keith, Moderator
Ludmila de Vasconcelos Leite Groch, Eric Dezeuze, Judith Seddon, Dr. Tobias Eggers

Panelists from five different countries will discuss major developments in each of their respective jurisdictions that should be of particular interest to US white collar practitioners.

C. Environmental Crimes Enforcement Trends
David Gerger, Moderator
Hon. Stanwood Duval Jr., Deborah L. Harris, Karen Popp, Steven P. Solow

This panel will analyze recent developments in this enforcement area, including the adoption of new policies by prosecutors, the manner in which they have been applied, and the reaction of the courts, and will offer advice on adjusting defenses to this new environment.

D. Money Laundering and AML: Responding to New and Existing Compliance and Enforcement Challenges
M. Kendall Day, Moderator
Deborah Connor, Monty Raphael QC, Frederick Reynolds, Sung-Hee Suh, Mara Senn

Panelists will review both domestic and international developments, and discuss the extent of anti-money laundering liability for individuals and corporations, including for compliance program deficiencies, with a focus on lessons that can be gleaned from recent enforcement actions. |

1:00 p.m. Welcoming Remarks
Prof. Lucian Dervan, Chair of the Criminal Justice Section

1:15 p.m. General Counsel Forum - General Counsel and the Regulators: Shaky Alliances and Dangerous Liaisons
Michael S. Pasano, Moderator
Lucy Fato, Ian T. Graham, Maria Green, Ruth E. Kim, Lisa Phalen, Larry D. Thompson, Wanji Walcott

This panel of general counsel will discuss the realities of working GCs in a post-Yates world and will focus on how General Counsel navigate contacts, relationships and inquiries with the DOJ, the SEC and other regulatory bodies, including handling privilege waivers, joint defense agreements, protective orders, DPAs, NPAs and more.

3:00 p.m. Coffee Break

3:15 p.m. Special Session - Meet the Regulators
David Esseks, Moderator
John Cronan, John Demers, Steven Peikin, James McDonald

The directors of the SEC and CFTC Division of Enforcement and the Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the DOJ Criminal Division will discuss their respective agency’s enforcement priorities.

4:15 p.m. Breakout Sessions II
A. The Explosion of Digital Currency and ICO Enforcement Actions – The Current Landscape and What the Future Holds
Nina Marino, Moderator
Brian E. Klein, Michelle R. Korver, Mark Lanterman, Patricia Peláez

Since the explosion of ICOs (initial coin offerings), the SEC and CFTC have been aggressively pursuing investigations and enforcement actions. The DOJ has also been investigating and charging high profile cases involving digital currency. This panel will explore the current landscape and what the future might hold.

B. New Developments in Criminal Tax Enforcement
Caroline D. Ciraolo, Moderator
Sandra R. Brown, Thomas J. Holloman, III, Paula M. Junghans, Carlos F. Ortiz

This panel will consider the ever-expanding role of the IRS Criminal Investigation Division and its new specialized units in the investigation and prosecution of criminal tax cases, and will offer practice tips for dealing with such situations. It will also discuss the use of tax charges in otherwise non-tax cases, and the expansion of international collaboration in such cases.

C. Antitrust Enforcement
Lisa Tenorio-Kutzkey, Moderator
Kathryn Hellings, David Oscar Markus, Mark R. Rosman, Richard Powers

Panelists will focus on emerging trends in the investigation, prosecution and defense of corporations and individuals in criminal antitrust matters, including the proliferation of such cases with international ramifications, and explore key components in developing an effective defense.

Paul F. Enzinna, Moderator
Julie Edelstein, Jeffery B. Vaden, Joe D. Whitley, Wendy Wysong

The world has grown “flatter” in the 21st century, and technological advances, globalization, and international terrorism pose new challenges to the rule of law. This panel will address those challenges, and the legal system’s response to them, from border security to individual privacy and government secrecy, and from economic espionage to international trade.

E. International Data Protection Laws and their Impact on White Collar Practitioners
Jonathan S. Sack, Moderator
Stéphane Bonifassi, Christine Braamskamp, Björn Gercke, Lisa van der Wal

The risks associated with gathering and using personal data have increased in recent years, culminating in the adoption by the European Union (EU) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (effective May 2018), which extends the reach of EU law to many entities that conduct business in the EU, even though located in the United States, and imposes increased penalties for noncompliance. Panelists will discuss the GDPR and the individual laws of each represented country, and their impact on businesses that handle personal data of individuals and on defense of white collar cases.

A. Crisis Management During Investigations—When Stoic Silence is Not the Best Defense
Ira H. Raphaelson, Moderator
Lanny A. Breuer, Mark Fabiani, Alexandra Rebay, Hon. Amy J. St. Eve, Alissa Starzak
In an age of instant, around the clock news coverage, the perception of a client or case can be shaped or distorted in a single news cycle. Panelists will discuss the strategic and ethical implications of communications as an increasingly essential tool in mounting a vigorous defense, without breaching ethics rules or upsetting courts or prosecutors.

B. A Deep Dive Into the Complexities of Representing Multiple Defendants in Investigations
Jennifer Z. Belveal, Moderator
Nanci L. Clarence, Amy Jeffress, Jessica K. Nall, Jeffrey A. Taylor, Robert Zink
Panelists will consider the practical advantages and disadvantages of using pool counsel in internal investigations, including such factors as the impact of joint representation, whether the various clients’ interests are sufficiently aligned, the types of agreements entered with the company, the logistics of the engagement (disclosure and waiver of conflicts, protection of privileges when fees are paid by the company), consequences of one client being charged or cooperating, and managing client information to avoid potential cross-contamination.

C. Securities Enforcement in 2019 and Beyond
Jan Nielsen Little, Moderator
Panelists will analyze recent enforcement actions by the DOJ and the SEC, consider the evolving landscape of securities practice, and offer tips on defending cases.

D. Data Mining and Other Health Care Fraud Enforcement Trends
Marissel Descalzo, Moderator
Joseph Beemsterboer, Maria R. Durant, Adam Morris, Kirk Ogrosky
Panelists will consider the way the government uses data mining in health care fraud prosecutions, how such data was used in Melgen, strategies to defend such cases, and other recent trends.

E. Visual Persuasion: Effective Visuals for White Collar Trials
Kerri L. Ruttenberg, Moderator
Hon. Paul C. Huck, A. Margot Moss, Sanjay Subramanian
Panelists will offer strategies and tips, for more effectively designing and using visual images, including timelines, charts, graphs, maps and photographs, during trials to better assist the judge and jury to understand and remember key facts and themes.
