Description of Proceedings

The 2019 White Collar Crime National Institute will take place from Wednesday, March 6 to Friday, March 8, 2019, in New Orleans, Louisiana. On March 6, after the luncheon break, we will have a panel devoted to corporate general counsel, followed by a discussion with the heads of enforcement of the Department of Justice Criminal Division, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Commodities Futures Trading Commission.

In addition to those two plenary sessions, we will have three other such panels, including the much acclaimed panel of United States District Judges, an ethics panel of leading trial lawyers analyzing the complexities of representing multiple defendants in an investigation, and lastly, on Friday morning, distinguished speakers exploring the ethical issues and challenges that confront prosecutors, defense counsel, and legal commentators during high profile investigations.

Our average attendance each of the past two decades has exceeded 1,200 at this nationally recognized annual gathering of the national white collar bar. The Institute is proud to continue to present outstanding panelists who deal with some of the most significant and immediate issues of our time. This year we will continue to have the popular regional panels as well as the many analyses of recent developments in the various substantive areas that comprise white collar law. In light of the ever expanding globalization of the practice, several of the panels will tackle international issues faced by practitioners, including the complexities of foreign data privacy laws and the ever expanding role of monitorships in multi-country settlements. A group of leading lawyers from Canada, England, France, Germany, and Brazil will also discuss important recent developments in each of those countries that should be of interest to US lawyers.

Since its establishment in 1987, the Institute has been attended by leading federal and state judges and prosecutors, law enforcement officials, defense attorneys, corporate in-house counsel, and members of the academic community. The faculty regularly includes some of the top members of the white collar bar in the United States and abroad. Among the audience are nationally-renowned lawyers, as well as many who are beginning to concentrate in the white collar area. Attendees have consistently given the Institute high ratings for the exceptional quality of its publication, the panelists’ presentations, the valuable updates on new developments and strategies, as well as the rare opportunity to meet colleagues in this field, renew acquaintances and exchange ideas.

Once again, we will have three panels that will qualify for ethics CLE credit. The Institute will have excellent representation from the corporate sector and the judiciary, including Chief Judges Brian Jackson and Patti B. Saris, United States District Judges Denise Cote, Paul Friedman, Paul Huck, Amit Mehta, Carlos Mendoza, Carlton Reeves, Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers, and United States Circuit Judge Amy St. Eve. The general counsel of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), BAE Systems, Inc., Cloudflare, Inc., General Motors, FleishmanHillard, Ingersoll-Rand Plc, and PayPal will be participating, as will as senior members of the legal and compliance groups of Barclays Plc, Bechtel Corp., Computer Forensics Services, Google, Inc., Medtronic, and PIMCO. The Institute will also include senior members of the Department of Justice and distinguished members of academia.

Agenda

1:00 p.m. Welcoming Remarks
Prof. Lucian Dervan, Chair of the Criminal Justice Section

1:15 p.m. General Counsel Forum - General Counsel and the Regulators: Shaky Alliances and Dangerous Liaisons
Michael S. Pasano, Moderator
Lucy Fato, Ian T. Graham, Maria Green, Ruth E. Kim, Larry D. Thompson, Wani Walcott
This panel of general counsel will discuss the realities of working GCs in a post-Yates world and will focus on how General Counsel navigate contacts, relationships and inquiries with the DOJ, the SEC and other regulatory bodies, including handling privilege waivers, joint defense agreements, protective orders, DPAs, NPAs and more.

3:00 p.m. Coffee Break

3:15 p.m. Special Session - Meet the Enforcers
Pamela R. Chepiga, Moderator
Steven Peikin, Sandra Moser, James McDonald
The directors of the SEC and CFTC Division of Enforcement and the head of the DOJ Criminal Division’s Fraud Section will discuss their respective agency’s enforcement priorities.

4:15 p.m. Breakout Sessions II

A. The Explosion of Digital Currency and ICO Enforcement Actions – The Current Landscape and What the Future Holds
Nina Marino, Moderator
Brian E. Klein, Michelle R. Korver, Mark Lanterman, Patricia Pelaez
Since the explosion of ICOs (initial coin offerings), the SEC and CFTC have been aggressively pursuing investigations and enforcement actions. The DOJ has also been investigating and charging high profile cases involving digital currency. This panel will explore the current landscape and what the future might hold.

B. New Developments in Criminal Tax Enforcement
Caroline D. Ciraolo, Moderator
J. Donald Fort, Paula M. Junghans, Carlos F. Ortiz, Steven Toscher
This panel will consider the ever-expanding role of the IRS Criminal Investigation Division and its new specialized units in the investigation and prosecution of criminal tax cases, and will offer practice tips for dealing with such situations. It will also discuss the use of tax charges in otherwise non-tax cases, and the expansion of international collaboration in such cases.

C. Antitrust Enforcement
Lisa Tenorio-Kutzkey, Moderator
Kathryn Hellings, David Oscar Markus, Mark R. Rosman, Richard Powers
Panelists will focus on emerging trends in the investigation, prosecution and defense of corporations and individuals in criminal antitrust matters, including the proliferation of such cases with international ramifications, and explore key components in developing an effective defense.

Paul F. Enzinna, Moderator
Julie Edelstein, Jeffery B. Vaden, Joe D. Whitley, Wendy Wysong
The world has grown “flatter” in the 21st century, and technological advances, globalization, and international terrorism pose new challenges to the rule of law. This panel will address those challenges, and the legal system’s response to them, from border security to individual privacy and government secrecy, and from economic espionage to international trade.

E. International Data Protection Laws and their Impact on White Collar Practitioners
Jonathan S. Sack, Moderator
Stéphane Bonifassi, Christine Braamskamp, Björn Gercke, Lisa van der Wal
The risks associated with gathering and using personal data have increased in recent years, culminating in the adoption by the European Union (EU) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (effective May 2018), which extends the reach of EU law to many entities that conduct business in the EU, even though located in the United States, and imposes increased penalties for noncompliance. Panelists will discuss the GDPR and the individual laws of each represented country, and their impact on businesses that handle personal data of individuals and on defense of white collar cases.

Ann Brickley, Saverio Lembo, Lee-Anne Mulholland, Scarlet Reid, Jennifer L. Saulino
Panelists will explore the legal and ethical issues that arise in asserting and maintaining the attorney-client privilege during multi-national investigations, including, among others, who is entitled to the privilege, who determines if a privilege exists and which jurisdiction’s law applies.

D. Corporate Compliance with Government Imposed Monitors - Lessons Learned and Tips from Recent Monitorship
Prof. Lucian E. Dervan, Moderator
Gene Cahill, Christine Gordon, Kathleen L. Matsoukas, Adria L. Perez, R. David Walk, Jr.
Join key players from the Olympus Corp. monitorship team, including its Deputy Chief Compliance Officer and the DOJ attorney on the matter, as they discuss lessons learned and provide tips for a successful monitorship. A member of the Volkswagen monitorship team will offer further insights into the global role of monitorships today.

E. Sentencing and its Collateral Consequences
James E. Felman, Moderator
The panel will discuss the recent amendments to the sentencing guidelines for economic offenses and other developments, and consider strategies for effective sentencing advocacy, including with regards to the calculation of loss, multiple and often overlapping specific offense characteristics, and effective arguments for obtaining sentences below advisory guidelines ranges.

4:00 p.m. Coffee Break

4:15 p.m. Breakout Sessions IV

A. Crisis Management During Investigations—When Stoic Silence is Not the Best Defense
Ira H. Raphaelson, Moderator
Lanny A. Breuer, Mark Fabiani, Hon. Amy J. St. Eve, Gloria Santona, Alyssa Starzak (Invited)
In an age of instant, around the clock news coverage, the perception of a client or case can be shaped or distorted in a single news cycle. Panelists will discuss the strategic and ethical implications of communications as an increasingly essential tool in mounting a vigorous defense, without breaching ethics rules or upsetting courts or prosecutors.

B. A Deep Dive Into the Complexities of Representing Multiple Defendants in Investigations
Jennifer Z. Belveal, Moderator
Nanci L. Clarence, Amy Jeffress, Jessica K. Nall, Jeffrey A. Taylor, Robert Zink
Panelists will consider the practical advantages and disadvantages of using pool counsel in internal investigations, including such factors as the impact of joint representation, whether the various clients’ interests are sufficiently aligned, the types of agreements entered with the company, the logistics of the engagement (Disclosure and waiver of conflicts, protection of privileges when fees are paid by the company), consequences of one client being charged or cooperating, and managing client information to avoid potential cross-contamination.

C. Securities Enforcement in 2019 and Beyond
Jan Nielsen Little, Moderator
Antonia M. Apps, Robert Khuzami, Gary S. Linenberg, Gary P. Naftalis
Panelists will analyze recent enforcement actions by The DOJ and the SEC, consider the evolving landscape of securities practice, and offer tips on defending cases.

D. Data mining and other health care fraud enforcement trends
Marissel Descalzo, Moderator
Joseph Beensterboer (DOJ, Chief HCF), Maria R. Durant, Adam Morris, Kirk Ogrosky
Panelists will consider the way the government uses data mining in health care fraud prosecutions, how such data was used in Melgen, strategies to defend such cases, and other recent trends.

E. Visual Persuasion: Effective Visuals for White Collar Trials
Kerri L. Ruttenberg, Moderator
Shay M. Anderson, Hon. Paul C. Huck, A. Margot Moss
Panelists will offer strategies and tips, for more effectively designing and using visual images, including timelines, charts, graphs, maps and photographs, during trials to better assist the judge and jury to understand and remember key facts and themes.
