Description of Proceedings
The 29th Annual National Institute on Health Care Fraud provides a rewarding educational experience for health care attorneys, regulators, compliance professionals, state and federal prosecutors, criminal defense attorneys, and qui tam relators’ counsel. This national institute draws panelists, facilitators, and participants from each of these significant groups and offers unique opportunities to meet and share experiences and concerns in a non-adversarial setting.

The program planning committee is committed to creating a program that advances education, communication, professionalism, and discussion of current legal and ethical issues that arise in the health care fraud practice. These issues are addressed in panel discussions and small workshop formats designed to maximize audience participation.

3:00 p.m.  Health Care Fraud Workshops

Workshops have been planned to cover a variety of interesting and current topics. Facilitators experienced in the subject matter of each workshop will lead the discussions with the goal of eliciting the views and knowledge of the participants, many of whom have a vast amount of practical experience. The number and subject matter of the workshops may be determined by registration and thus are subject to change.

A. Electronic Medical Records And The False Claims Act
R. Joseph Burby, Owen Foster, Adam Schwartz

A discussion of the application of the false claims act and anti-kickback statute to electronic medical records. The presentation will address various areas of exposure and liability, explore corporate cooperation in the context of EHRs, and discuss damages principals.

B. Overpayment Liability And Self-Disclosure
Julie Kass, Tamar Terzian

This session will review the most up to date information regarding reporting Stark, Kick-Back and Overpayment issues to the government - should you disclose and if so to what government entity. This session will also discuss the most recent cases regarding the 60-day repayment rule and the practical implications.

C. Damages And Settlement
Laura Laemmle-Weidenfeld, Tim Rejilian, Kelly Sauders

This workshop will be a presentation and open discussion focusing on the key principles underlying False Claims Act damage calculations; discuss some of the current debates and emerging trends related to the calculation of damages; address the application of damage calculation principles to specific types of cases; provide practical tips for considering damages in a settlement negotiation context.

4:00 p.m. Break

4:15 p.m. A. Enforcement And Compliance: Quality Of Care And Medical Necessity
Mark Polston, Tom Corcoran, Eden Ezell

This workshop will examine the legal standards for False Claims Act liability for deficiencies in the quality of care and medical necessity and the reasonableness of health care services. The co-presenters will also examine different theories of liability and defenses in these types of False Claims Act cases.

B. Pre-Trial Pleadings And Discovery In False Claims Act Cases
Michelle Bradford, Ryan Stumphauzer

This workshop will examine the different common pleadings and discovery issues typical in False Claims Act litigation including but not limited to Motions to Dismiss under Rule 9(b) and Motions for Summary Judgment and the types of issues that are addressed in these pleadings, including the “Materiality” of compliance deficiencies as a basis for False Claims Act liability.

C. Negotiating False Claims Act Settlements And Mediation
Sarah Hall, Hon. Janice Symchych, Mark Vezina, Candice Deisher, Natalie Waites

This session will focus on the use of negotiation and mediation for resolving healthcare False Claims Act cases. The panel will discuss how best to prepare for negotiation and mediation, considering the distinct needs of clients, counsel, and the mediator. The involvement of relator and relator’s counsel in settlement discussions at various stages will also be addressed. Finally, the panel will explore some of the issues and challenges in mediation, with a particular focus on key settlement considerations.

5:30 p.m. Adjourn

6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. Welcome Reception
Friday, May 10, 2019

8:30 a.m.  Trial Practice Demonstration – United States of America v. Amir A. Bajoghli

- Moderator: Joe Whitley
- Panelists: Murad Hussain, Peter White, Nicholas Dingeldein

In 2015, a renowned Virginia dermatologist, surgeon, and professor at GWU Medical School was tried on 48 counts of health care fraud and aggravated identity theft. This panel presentation will examine the issues and evidence presented at trial involving allegations that the doctor (1) misdiagnosed patients with cancer so he could perform unnecessary surgery, (2) billed for unsupervised medical assistants performing post-op closures, (3) billed for unsupervised Nurse Practitioner services as if performed by the physician, and (4) billed for outside biopsy services performed by a third party lab and pathologist as if performed in-house.

10:00 a.m.  Break

10:15 a.m.  Health Care Fraud Workshops

A. Managed Care Fraud And Enforcement

- Presenters: Benjamin Singer, Carrie Bashaw

Presenters will describe recent enforcement actions involving, regulatory and legal developments in, and compliance guidance for Managed Care organizations.

B. Fraud And Abuse In Nursing Homes

- Presenters: Thom O’Hanlon, Craig Holden

The panelists will discuss hot topics in nursing home fraud and patient abuse cases. Topics covered in this interactive panel discussion will include criminal investigations and prosecutions in cases involving allegations of patients abuse; investigations and False Claims Act cases involving allegations of substandard care; and, criminal and civil cases involving allegations of financial fraud and false claims by nursing home providers. Each of these topics will be addressed from the government, relator and defense perspective.

C. Home Health And Hospice Enforcement And Compliance

- Presenters: L.T. Lafferty, Sara Vann

This workshop will focus on hospice and home health hot topics in the context of recent enforcement actions. It will address areas of focus in government investigations, including records review, sampling and falsity “plus” factors. Participants will have the opportunity in an open discussion format to explore competing viewpoints on risk areas such as eligibility and supporting documentation, and the certification process.

11:15 a.m.  Break
11:30 a.m. Health Care Fraud Workshops

A. Anatomy Of A Corporate Integrity Agreement and Compliance Program
Michael Regier, Susan Gillin, Steven Ortquist
This workshop will discuss the CIA provisions including recent changes. Should organizations not subject to a CIA adopt or adapt common CIA provisions? Additionally, panelists will offer pointers for negotiating, implementing and managing a CIA.

B. Federal Administrative Enforcement
Thomas Beimers, Michael Torrisi
This session will cover Office of Inspector General administrative authorities, including affirmative exclusions and Civil Monetary Penalties. We will also discuss enforcement trends and recent settlements, including the intersection with other agency actions and audits. The session will also address compliance measures that mitigate against liability.

C. Whistleblowers Case Study
Matthew Organ, David Chizewer
This workshop will discuss who are whistleblowers, why they become whistleblowers and the ways that counsel evaluate those matters presented by their clients for filing of a whistleblower case under the False Claims Act.

12:30 p.m. Lunch Break (Grab & Go Lunch)

12:45 p.m. Specialty Workshops
These workshops are designed to be confidential sessions where defense, government and relator’s counsel can discuss matters unique to their roles in criminal and civil health care fraud cases.

A. Workshop For Defense And In-House Counsel
Kathryn Sasser, John Bentivoglio, Andy Rittenberg
The panelists will discuss hot topics for defense lawyers and in-house counsel in health care fraud investigations, including document collection and production in the age of mobile devices and social media, interacting with current and former employees (including the advancement of legal fees), handling internal whistleblowers, and the role of legal and compliance in government investigations.

B. Workshop For Government Counsel
Gustav Eyler
This confidential workshop will involve topics of discussion between Department of Justice, Office of Inspector General, Medicaid Fraud Control Unit and other Government counsel of strategy and tactics involved in criminal and civil False Claims Act, Kickback and Stark Law cases.

C. Workshop For Qui Tam/Relators And Other Plaintiffs Counsel
