DESCRIPTION OF PROCEEDINGS

The 36th Annual National Institute on Criminal Tax Fraud and the 9th Annual National Institute on Tax Controversy is the yearly gathering of the tax controversy and criminal tax defense bar. This program brings together high-level government representatives, judges, corporate counsel, and private practitioners engaged in all aspects of tax controversy, tax litigation, and criminal tax prosecutions and defense.

Join us for:

• Round-table discussions with senior officials from the IRS and Justice Department
• Strategies for experienced practitioners when representing clients in examination, at appeals, and during criminal investigations
• Breakout sessions focused on civil tax controversy and criminal tax defense strategies
• Advice from judges on what they want to hear from you

| 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m | Low Income Taxpayers: The role of hardship in tax and tax collection. | Moderator: Frank Agostino
Panelists: Hon. Elizabeth Copeland, Jennifer Breen, Shawna Early, Rollin Thorley, Jaime Vasquez, Michael Wallace
This panel will address the impact of hardship on the computation and collection of tax. Government representatives and practitioners will discuss best practices for proving hardship. All are welcome, and all are encouraged to use what they learn to help the low income taxpayer community. (Registration not required for this panel.) |
| 1:00 p.m. – 2:15 p.m | First time attendee / old-timer welcome lunch | Sponsored by: Capes Sokol, Caplin & Drysdale, Green & Sklarz LLC, Greenberg Traurig, LLP, Holtz, Slavett & Drabkin, APLC, Marcus Neiman & Rashbaum LLP |
| 2:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m | Civil Workshop – The Trust Fund Penalty – from investigation through litigation, including 6672(d) contribution | Moderator: Frank Agostino
Panelists: Hon. Juan Vasquez, Philip Colosanto, Antoinette L. Ellison, Darren Guillot, Michael, Villa, Wesley J. Wong
This popular workshop will teach the fundamentals of representing taxpayers in civil tax controversy by focusing on trust fund penalty issues. The program will provide an overview of section 6672 and its applicability to employment and other taxes. Panelists will demonstrate how to prepare a client to be interviewed and what written submissions to make. Learn best practices before IRS Collections and IRS Appeals, including collection due process proceedings, how to present your case in court, when and how to bring a contribution claim, when to make a Taxpayer Bill of Rights 2 request, and how to consider private causes of action. The skills addressed in this workshop will serve all practitioners across substantive tax controversy issues. |

| 9:15 a.m. – 10:15 p.m. | Plenary: Write This Down? Experts Discuss Ethical and Other Considerations when Deciding Whether, How, and How Much to Document in the Life of a Civil or Criminal Tax Controversy
Moderator: Jenny Johnson-Ware
Panelists: Armando Gomez, Rob Keaster, Richard Sapinski
During the life of a tax case, there are many moments when practitioners are faced with the dilemma of whether to document certain conversations, joint defense agreements, and more. The tension between protecting a client and the lawyer’s self-interest especially comes into play when considering documenting conversations about options for cleaning up past tax mistakes. This panel will explore the most common “documenting” decisions civil and criminal tax attorneys face and discuss best practices for how to handle. |
| 10:15 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. | Break |
| 10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. | Civil Enforcement Priorities
Moderator: Miriam L. Fisher
Panelists: Michael J. Desmond, Eric Hylton, Barbara T. Kaplan, Steven Miller
IRS leadership has recently been delivering a clear enforcement message. This panel will let you hear about these priorities directly from those leaders, and how to be prepared from experienced practitioners. |
| 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. | Getting Out Front—Listed Transactions, Transactions of Interest and Injunction Actions
Moderator: Christopher S. Rizek
Panelists: Thomas A. Cullinan, Charles E. Hodges, Michelle Levin
This panel will explore how the IRS uses the tools of listed transactions and transactions of interest, and what this means for persons involved in the transactions. The panel will also consider how the IRS and the Department of Justice initiate and prosecute injunction actions. |
| 12:30 p.m. – 1:45 p.m. | Jerry Feffer Annual Lunch
Keynote: Hon. Charles P. Rettig, Commissioner, Internal Revenue |
| 1:45 p.m. – 2:45 p.m. | Ask the Judges
Moderator: Frank J. Jackson
Panelists: Hon. Tamara Ashford, Hon. Maurice B. Foley, Hon. Mark Holmes, Todd Welty
Every litigator needs to know how best to present the client’s case. What do Judges consider to be best practices? What can Judges tell you about avoidable mistakes? Let this panel of Judges tell you how it looks from the bench. |
| 2:45 p.m. – 3:45 p.m. | What you Don’t Know But Need to Know About Internet Provider Searches
Moderator: Sandra Brown
Panelists: Jason Poole, Michael Pasano, Thomas Zehnle
We now live in the digital world and the government may be searching your clients' files without the historical knock on the door. The panel will discuss the statutory and constitutional issues caused by ISP searches, and the best practices and procedures to follow when the government employs this investigative tool. |

Agenda subject to change without notice.
It’s a Whole New World: Defending and Litigating Partnership Adjustments under the Bi-Partisan Budget Act of 2015
Moderator: Gwen Moore
Panelists: Mathew Lerner, Michel Stein

When Congress passed the Bi-Partisan Budget Act, TEFRA was repealed. IRS examination of partnerships and subsequent litigation over tax disputes as we know it will be vastly different from past years. Now that the Treasury Regulations setting forth the new audit regime have been finalized and the Tax Court rules regarding partnership have been amended, it is time to jump in and learn them.

Charging Cryptocurrency Violations—Tax Crimes or Money-Laundering
Moderator: Peter Hardy
Panelists: Ian Comisky, Evan Davis, Betty Williams

Whether and when the government may bring money laundering charges in a tax case has long been a controversial topic. This panel will address developing issues in crypto-currency enforcement, and whether money laundering may become the go-to charge when cryptocurrency is involved. Find out when this is a risk and the implications to the defendant if money laundering is charged.

Break

Currents Trends and Practices in IRS Collection Actions
Moderator: Eric Green
Panelists: Nina E. Olson, Robert E. McKenzie, Darren Guillot (IRS)

Private debt collectors, passport revocation, and other traditional and new tools for collection – this panel will explore what the IRS is doing today, and some of the policy concerns that are being raised. The speakers will also discuss best practices to protect your clients.

The Continuing Role of the Fifth Amendment Protections in Tax Enforcement
Moderator: Bryan Skarlatos
Panelists: Sarah Paul, Alexander Robbins, Kevin Sweeney

The Fifth Amendment continues to be a vital to the protections of taxpayers. The panel will discuss how the new digital world is affecting the Fifth Amendment.

The Changing World of Evidence
Moderator: TBD
Panelists: Aaron Iny, Larry Sannicandro, Phil Wilson

We are well into a post-paper world. Evidence today comes not just from the obvious electronically stored information, but also from trillions of bits of data that are collected by private businesses, credit bureaus, social media platforms and the government. Find out what you need to know about how the government is using this data treasure trove.

The Consequences of Conviction—The Sentencing Guidelines, Restitution, Forfeiture, and Other Bad Things That Happen.
Moderator: Charles M. Meadows, Jr.
Panelists: Randy Aandreozzi, Caroline D. Ciraolo, Jeffrey A. Neiman

Whether by plea or verdict, a determination of guilt does not end the matter. This panel will address the ever-evolving challenges of applying the Sentencing Guidelines, addressing restitution and forfeiture, and other collateral consequences.

Dinner – Ferraro’s (ticketed event)

After Hours Event
Sponsor: Agostino & Associates P.C.

Agenda subject to change without notice.

There has been an evolution of the IRS voluntary disclosure practice over the last 10 years, with recent changes made in November 2018 and more recently with the IRS ‘soft letter’ crypto currency initiative. The panel will discuss ethical and other considerations in deciding whether to amend a tax return, and the tools available today to help mitigate both domestic and international compliance issues.</td>

Cancellations

Cancellations received five business days or more before the program will receive a full refund, less a $50 cancellation fee. No refunds will be provided for cancellations after that date; however, substitute registrants are welcome at any time. To cancel your registration or substitute another individual, please call the ABA at (800) 285-2221 or fax your request to (312) 988-5850. Registrants who do not cancel within the allotted time period and who do not attend the program will receive a copy of the program course materials after program completion.

In-Person Registration

If you plan to register in person, please call the ABA at least 24 hours in advance to confirm that the program is being held as scheduled and that space is available. Cash payments will not be accepted.
