August 20, 2020  Inaugural Session: Diversity and Inclusion as a Key Factor in Project Management.

Our keynote speaker Tewanee Joseph, a member of the Squamish First Nation who served as the Executive Director and CEO of the Four Host First Nations Secretariat for the Vancouver 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games. Mr. Joseph, who has a talent for facilitating and coordinating diverse groups to identify and achieve common goals, played a key role in planning, hosting, and staging the 2010 Games, and will discuss how the management team’s focus on inclusion was a critical element in ensuring the success and lasting legacy of the games.

September 17, 2020  From the South Side of Chicago to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway

The Keynote Speaker will be Jimmie L. McMillian Senior Corporate Counsel of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. Mr. McMillian will discuss his journey from the South Side of Chicago, to Partner at an Am Law 100 firm (which was the subject of New York Times Article), and then to the Speedway. Along the way he learned about the importance of mentorship, the challenges facing black lawyers, and the need to advocate for social justice issues that were important to him. Mr. McMillian will also provide some fascinating facts about his role as senior counsel, and the challenges of hosting the single largest day sporting event in the world (with this year hopefully being the only exception to that distinction).

October 15, 2020  CRITICAL CONVERSATIONS: HOW SOCIAL UNREST IS CHANGING THE DIALOGUE ABOUT DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

Diversity and inclusion efforts have been a focus of most organizations across the country, even prior to the social unrest of 2020. Now, more than ever, the need for authentic and broad corporate diversity and inclusion programs and initiatives is apparent to companies across industry and geography. Join us as DeRetta Rhodes, Senior Vice President of People Capital for the Atlanta Braves, and Tom Garrett, Chief Human Resources Officer for Brasfield & Gorrie, one of the nation’s largest privately held construction firms, share how their organizations seized this opportunity to transform D&I initiatives into a diverse and inclusive culture.
