The Forum Comes to Memphis!

The ABA Forum on the Entertainment and Sports Industries is bringing its Spring Governing Committee Meeting to Memphis. In connection with that event, the Forum is sponsoring a program on Thursday, April 4, 2019, that begins with a luncheon featuring renowned author Robert Gordon whose books Memphis Rent Party and Respect Yourself tell the stories of Stax Records and Memphis’s rich musical tradition. The program includes three hour-long CLE panels, including the State of the Entertainment and Sports Industries, Ethics and a Litigation Update. The program concludes with a reception, and the entire afternoon will take place at the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law, just off the Courthouse Square in downtown Memphis.

Sponsors

Thank you to the Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law for graciously donating the meeting space for this program.

ETHICS – Wearing Two Hats and Handshake Deals: Dealing with the Fact that the Ethics Rules Govern Sports and Entertainment Lawyers Too
This panel will explore how different conflicts in the entertainment and sports industries are potentially more complicated where one lawyer represents multiple clients or different types of acts in the same space – particularly if the lawyer is also acting as an agent for one or more of the clients. The panelists will also discuss lessons learned from the Johnny Depp case about how “Hollywood” is not different for lawyers on issues such as rules regarding contingent fees.

There are no one-day registration or single event options. Conference registrations received after March 15, 2019 will not have name badges available for pick-up at the registration desk. Individuals who register after March 15, 2019 will have their name badges made on-site.

Financial Assistance
A limited number of scholarships to defray tuition expenses are available for this program. To request an application or receive additional information, please contact bernadette.steele@americanbar.org by February 8, 2019. Qualifying attorneys may receive a 50% reduction in tuition fees.

On-Site Registration
On-site registration will be accepted if space is available. If you plan to register on-site, you must call 312-988-5658 at least 72 hours before the conference to confirm that space is still available. Failure to call in advance may result in you not being admitted to a sold-out program. On-site registrants are required to pay the registration fees by check, Visa, Mastercard, Discover, or American Express. No registrations will be accepted without payment. Name Badges for on-site registrants will not be available in advance and will be made on-site.

Hotel Reservations
There is no official hotel for this event. Attendees are responsible for their own accommodations.

Persons with Disabilities
If special arrangements are required for individuals with disabilities to attend this program, please contact Bernadette Steele at bernadette.steele@americanbar.org or 312-988-5658 no later than March 1, 2019.

CLE Credit
The ABA directly applies for and ordinarily receives CLE credit for ABA programs in AK, AL, AR, AZ, CA, CO, CT, DE, GA, GU, HI, IA, IL, IN, KS, KY, LA, ME, MN, MS, MO, MP, MT, NH, NJ, NM, NV, NY, NC, ND, OH, OK, OR, PA, SC, TN, TX, UT, VT, VA, VI, WA, WI, and WV. These states sometimes do not approve a program for credit before the program occurs. This course is expected to qualify for 3.00 CLE credit hours (including 1.0 ethics hours) in 60-minute states, and 3.60 credit hours (including 1.2 ethics hours) in 50-minute states. This transitional program is approved for both newly admitted and experienced attorneys in NY. Attorneys may be eligible to receive CLE credit through reciprocity or attorney self-submission in other states. For more information about CLE accreditation in your state, visit http://www.americanbar.org/cle/mandatory_cle.html

Cancellation Policy
Registrants who are unable to attend the program will receive a refund less a $50.00 administrative fee if a written cancellation is received by March 1, 2019. After March 1, 2019, no refunds will be granted. Substitutions are acceptable. Cancellations may be faxed to 312-988-5850. The ABA reserves the right to cancel any programs and assumes no responsibility for personal expenses.
