Ethics and the Virtual Law Practice
Salons B & C (Flamboyan)
Technology is constantly changing the practice of law. Today’s family lawyer must court an increasingly connected client base and navigate a 21st Century legal system, and more and more lawyers are opting to take their practices online. Our panelists will cover the ins and outs of a virtual law practice; offer tips, tech, and tools to use; and dig in to the ethical issues that such new practices encounter, including ensuring technical competency, managing conflicts of interest, communicating effectively, maintaining client confidentiality in an insecure world, and more!

GENERAL INFORMATION

TRAVELING TO THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC
Please make sure that your passport is up-to-date. Also, please check the CDC’s “Health Information for Travelers to the Dominican Republic” to ensure you are prepared.

ROOM RESERVATIONS & HOTEL INFORMATION
Accommodations will be provided by Casa de Campo Resort. There are 2 discounted room rates:
- $199.00/night (plus applicable fees & taxes) for Elite Rooms
- $169.00/night (plus applicable fees & taxes) for Superior Casita Rooms

Reservations should be made directly with the hotel by going to ambar.org/fl1905, and clicking on the link to hotel reservations by Tuesday, April 9, 2019, 5:00pm CST. If you would prefer to book via phone, please call the Casa de Campo Reservations Department at 800.877.3643 and ask for the Group Reservations Agent. Please make sure to identify that you are with the 2019 Family Law Spring CLE Conference. Discounted rooms are subject to availability, so be sure to make your reservations early!

PLEASE NOTE: In order to make sure all registered attendees are accommodated at our conference hotel, each registrant will only be allowed to make a reservation for (1) room. If you need additional rooms to accommodate family, exceptions will be made in certain cases. Additionally, if you are not registered for the conference by April 2, 2019, we will request that the hotel cancel your reservation to accommodate other registered attendees.

Payment & Deposits: Casa de Campo will require a deposit in advance from individual guests to guarantee a reservation. To guarantee an individual reservation, two nights of the total stay including applicable taxes will be charged at the time of booking. Full prepayment will be due seven (7) days prior to arrival. Balance of payments will be automatically charged to the credit card used for initial deposit unless alternate arrangements are made. Reservations made within seven (7) days prior to arrival date require full payment.

Cancellation Policy: The final day to cancel without financial penalty is April 23, 2019. If you cancel after that date, you will be charged for 2 nights of your stay.

AIRLINE ARRANGEMENTS
Take advantage of ABA-negotiated discounts on American, United, and Delta Airlines! Please visit the conference website (ambar.org/fl1905) and click on “Transportation” for more details.

NEARBY AIRPORTS & TRANSPORTATION
There are 3 airports that serve the Casa de Campo area: La Romana (LRM), Punta Cana (PUJ), and Santo Domingo (SDQ). While La Romana is the closest to the resort, it has very limited flights, and the flights that are available are often expensive. Most people will find that flying into Punta Cana (PUJ) makes the most sense based on flight times and cost, and it is only a 45-minute drive from Casa de Campo.

The Casa de Campo preferred airport transfer company is Prestige Limo Service, and they have special discounted rates for individuals staying at Casa de Campo. They can provide transfers from all 3 airports listed above. To make an airport transfer reservation with Prestige, please contact Carmen Coradin at 809.550.7227 or by email at transferercd@gmail.com. Transfer charges cannot be applied to your room. When you contact Carmen, please make sure to mention that you are with the ABA Family Law Spring CLE Conference to receive the discounted rates.

If you choose to rent a car to travel to Casa de Campo, most rooms have areas near them where you can park; there are no parking fees at Casa de Campo.

More information on transportation, including pricing, please visit ambar.org/fl1905.

ADVANCE REGISTRATION
Please register online at ambar.org/fl1905. If you need assistance with the registration process, please call Samantha Schooley at 312.988.5603.

The early bird registration deadline for Family Law Section members is Wednesday, March 20th. All registrations must be made on or before that date to receive the early bird rate, so don’t delay. All advance registrations must be received by Wednesday, April 10, 2019. After that date, please register on-site.

Altos de Chavón – Step back in time in this replica of a 16th Century Mediterranean village with sweeping views of the Chavón River. In Altos de Chavón, you’ll find a multitude of shops and restaurants, as well as an art gallery and museum.

Equestrian Center & Polo – Take in the beautiful resort on horseback or learn how to play polo. Casa de Campo offers a variety of equestrian activities for the whole family.

Fitness Center – Stay fit while you’re in paradise! Casa de Campo’s state-of-the-art fitness center is open from 6am to 8pm every day. "Use of the fitness center is included with your resort stay."

Golf – Casa de Campo boasts (3) championship golf courses designed by Pete Dye, including Teeth of the Dog which is ranked the #3 best Caribbean golf course by USA Today and ranked #27 in the list of the World’s Greatest Golf Courses [outside the US] by Golf Digest. "Conference attendees receive a 10% discount on golf."

Marina – More than just a nautical facility, the Marina at Casa de Campo has shops, restaurants, and even a movie theater. Be sure to check out all it has to offer.

Minitas Beach – Conveniently located in the heart of the resort, Minitas Beach is Casa de Campo’s private paradise. Sink your toes into the sand and go for a swim in the Caribbean Sea. If you prefer the pool life, you can take a dip in the Minitas Beach Club’s beautiful infinity-edge pool overlooking the sea. The Beach Club is also one of the best spots on the island to watch the sunset!

Off-Site Excursions – While there is certainly more than enough to keep you occupied on the resort property, you can also sign up for one of Casa de Campo’s many off-site tours. Spend the day at the beach on Catalina Island; tour Las Maravillas Cave to see pictographs left by the natives who lived on the island before the arrival of Christopher Columbus; or explore Santo Domingo, the capital of the Dominican Republic and the oldest city in the New World.

Casa de Campo, one of the most exclusive destinations in the Caribbean, is situated on 7,000 acres and offers its visitors unparalleled amenities and experiences. Here’s an overview of opportunities available at the resort:

Restaurants & Bars – Have a taste for sushi? Head to Pubbelly Sushi at the Marina. Hungry for Italian food? La Piazzetta, located in Altos de Chavón, serves up Italian classics as well as their own Italian-inspired dishes. Any craving you may have, Casa de Campo has you covered with close to 20 different outlets throughout the property.

Shooting Center – Casa de Campo is home to the “most comprehensive shooting facility in the Caribbean.” There are shooting adventures for all ages and skill levels, including trap, skeet, and clays as well as driven pheasant, partridge, and duck shoots.

Spa – If you’re in need of relaxation and rejuvenation, look no further than the Spa at Casa de Campo. “Conference attendees receive a 10% discount on spa services.”

Tennis – Want to work on your serve in paradise? La Terraza Tennis Center has 13 courts available and plenty of professionals on staff if you’re looking to improve your skills.

Water Sports – Fishing, snorkeling, kayaking, sailing, paddle surfing...with the Caribbean Sea and Chavón River at your fingertips at Casa de Campo, the opportunities for activities on—and under—the water are almost limitless.

For more information and fees associated with many of these activities, visit the conference website ambar.org/fl1905.

To make arrangements for many of these activities, contact the Casa de Campo concierge by email: a.concierge@ccampo.com.do or d.cespedes@ccampo.com.do.
