About Our Books

Our award-winning and best-selling books are trusted resources written by lawyers for lawyers on a variety of topics from fundamentals of law and forms and letters to trial preparation, trial practice, and more.

Authors of books for the American Bar Association have helped contribute to more than 140 years of ABA history and our commitment to excellence in publishing. We publish texts of the highest quality and usefulness to the legal profession. Our goals are to provide authors with the necessary tools and information to make the writing and editing experience as clear, efficient, and effective as possible.

The ABA Solo, Small Firm and General Practice Division (GPSolo) is the national voice for solo, small firm, and general practice lawyers and provides numerous publications, CLE events, podcasts, and meetings.

What's Your Story?

Do you have an idea for a book? Have you always wanted to be an author? Our editors and publishing team will work with you on all aspects of the publishing process including completing a book proposal, understanding the publishing process, providing author guidelines, and sharing tips for marketing your work.

“ABA Book Publishing thanks you for your writing and editorial commitment and we look forward to working with you.”

– Bryan L. Kay, Director of Editorial, ABA Book Publishing

Write for Us!

We’re always looking for new authors who want to share their experience and knowledge with our audience. If you have an idea for a book, would like to learn more about the publishing process, or would like to submit a book proposal, please contact us:

Lorraine Murray, Editor
ABA Book Publishing
American Bar Association
321 North Clark Street, 20th FL
Chicago, IL 60654-7598
Phone: 312-988-6004
Email: Lorraine.Murray@americanbar.org