ABA Showcase Program

Deportation, Due Process, and the New Frontier of U.S. Immigration Policy

Millions of noncitizens in the United States, including immigrants, refugees, and visitors are impacted by the new U.S. immigration policies sweeping the nation. Immigrants are being rounded up and targeted for deportation by enforcement authorities, separating families, and swelling already-overcrowded detention facilities and immigration courts. Lawful permanent residents (“green card” holders), were literally turned away at the airports upon returning from visits abroad – before the Courts stepped in and halted these new practices. So-called “Sanctuary Cities” have been threatened with roll-backs in federal funding for social service programs unless they employ local police officers and resources to help enforce these new federal policies. How can these “reforms” be reconciled with time-honored, due process protections and the U.S. image as a beacon of hope for those persecuted abroad?

Panelists:

Jojo Annobil, Executive Director, Immigrant Justice Corps, New York

T. Alexander Aleinikoff, Director of the Zolberg Institute on Migration and Mobility at The New School in New York City

Bree Bernwanger, Lawyer's Committee for Civil Rights, San Francisco, CA

Muzaffar Chishti, Director, Migration Policy Institute at NYU Law

Announcer:

Alex Manuel, Administrative Judge, U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development, Washington, DC

States typically decide whether a program qualifies for CLE credit in their jurisdiction 4-8 weeks after the program application is submitted. For many live events, credit approval is not received prior to the program. The ABA directly applies for and ordinarily receives credit for live, in-person programs in AK, AL, AR, AZ, CA, CO, DE, GA, GU, HI, IA, IL, IN, KS, KY, LA, MN, MO, MT, NC, ND, NH, NM, NY, OH, OK, OR, PA, PR, SC, TN, TX, UT, VA, VI, VT, WA, WI, and WV. Credit hours are estimated and are subject to each state's approval and credit rounding rules.
