American Bar Association
Section of Labor and Employment Law

National Conference on Equal Employment Opportunity Law

CHALLENGES IN INTERNATIONAL EMPLOYMENT LAW: GLOBAL WORKFORCES, EMPLOYMENT POLICIES AND PRACTICES IN AN INTERNATIONAL ECONOMY

March 31, 2017

Sponsored by
Borden Ladner Gervais and
Hicks Morley Hamilton Stewart Storie LLP
Challenges in International Employment Law
Panel

Moderator:
Danny Kaufer
Borden Ladner Gervais, Montréal, QC

Speakers:
Jeffrey E. Goodman
Hicks Morley Hamilton Stewart Storie LLP, Toronto, ON
John W. Hamlin
Marsh & McLennan Companies, Inc., New York, NY
Purvis Ghani
Stephenson Harwood LLP, London, UK
Challenges in International Employment Law

- The Employment Relationship Globally
  - Regulation of employment relationship
  - Documenting and changing the relationship
  - At-will employment?
  - Terminating the relationship
- Adjudication of Disputes
- Uniform global policies, compensation, and benefits
- New frontiers
  - Gig economy, robotics, artificial intelligence
- Diversity Initiatives
- Pay Equity
- Employee Representation:
  - Unions, Works Councils, International Labor Organizations
- Global Mobility Challenges