SUNDAY, MARCH 1

3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.  Registration (Ballroom Foyer)

3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.  Civility in the Practice of Labor Law, Eh?
Lessons from our Friendly Canadian Neighbors (Grand Ballroom)
Panelists will address civility in the practice of labor law in the United States pursuant to Model Rules 1.3, 3.4 and 4.1, among other. The speakers also will discuss civility rules governing some of Canada’s labor laws and explore whether ethical civility rules should be expanded in the United States. Attorneys attending the presentation will learn the current ethics requirements that address civility and how that applies to the contentious practice of labor law.

Speakers:  Clifford J. Hart, Borden Ladner Gervais, LLP, Toronto, ON
Lisa Pau, Laborers’ International Union of North America (LiUNA!), Washington, DC

6:00 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.  First-time Attendee Reception (Banyan Tree)

8:30 a.m. – 9:45 a.m.  One Step Forward or Two Steps Back?
The NLRB’s Latest Rulemaking Related to its R Case Procedures
Over the past few years, the NLRB has proposed to change, and has changed, rules regarding representation case procedures, including changes to the 2014 R Case rules, blocking charge standards, and voluntary recognition. Attorneys attending the presentation will learn about what these significant changes to the R Case procedures are, as well as their anticipated affects while representing unions and employers.
Speakers: Allyson L. Belovin, Levy Ratner, P.C., New York, NY
W. Jonathan Martin II, Costangy Brooks Smith & Prophete LLP, Macon, GA

9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.  Spouse/Guest Breakfast (Cana Terrace)

9:45 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.  Refreshment Break (Ballroom Terrace)

10:00 a.m. – 11:15 a.m.  Having an Identity Crisis: A Discussion of the NLRB’s Misclassification and Independent Contractor Decisions in Velox Express and SuperShuttle
In 2019, the NLRB ruled that an employer’s misclassification of employees as independent contractors does not violate Section 8(a)(1) of the NLRA (Velox), and it overruled FedEx Home Delivery (2014) when it held in SuperShuttle DFW, Inc. that franchisees who operate ride-share vans for SuperShuttle are independent contractors. The speakers will address how these significant changes will affect the workplace and labor law.

Speakers:  Kwan Park, Morrison & Foerster LLP, San Francisco, CA
Mark Gaston Pearce, Georgetown Workers’ Rights Institute, Washington, DC

11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.  Get Off My Lawn! The Changing Nature of Employer’s Property Rights Under Tobin Center, UPMC Presbyterian Shadyside and Kroger Limited Partnership
From its decisions in Kroger Limited Partnership and UPMC regarding non-employee union organizers’ access to employer’s property, to its decision in Tobin Center regarding access by off-duty employees of an onsite contractor, the NLRB has overruled precedent and significantly altered the law regarding access to employer’s property. The speakers will address the impact of these changes on unions, employees and employers.

Speakers:  Pamela Chandran, United Nurses Associations of California/Union of Health Care Professionals, NUHHCE, AFSCME, Los Angeles, CA
Rebekah Ramirez, Faegre Baker Daniels LLP, Indianapolis, IN

6:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.  Speakers and Editors Reception (invitation only)

7:00 p.m. – 11:30 p.m.  Bio-Bay Kayaking at Las Cabezas de San Juan Nature Reserve (optional ticketed event)

TUESDAY, MARCH 3

7:00 a.m. – 8:00 a.m.  Breakfast Buffet (Ballroom Terrace)

7:00 a.m. – 8:00 a.m.  Women’s Breakfast (Cana Terrace)

8:00 a.m. – 9:15 a.m.  Judging a Book by its Cover(age): Bargaining and Litigation Strategies after MV Transportation, Inc., Merck and Pittsburgh Post-Gazette (Grand Ballroom)
The NLRB dramatically shifted its approaches to interpreting collective bargaining agreements in 2019, including as to unilateral employer changes under a management rights clause (MV Transportation and Pittsburgh Post-Gazette), and disparate treatment of represented and non-represented employees (Merck). The speakers will explore what this new line of precedent says about collective bargaining and NLRB litigation strategies in 2020 and beyond.

Speakers: Vanessa I. Marzan-Hernandez, Littler Mendelson P.C., Hato Rey, PR
Clement Tsao, Branstetter, Stranch & Jennings, PLLC, Cincinnati, OH

9:15 a.m. – 10:15 a.m. Enforcement Litigation Review
Deputy Associate General Counsels will examine significant cases involving Board authority, appellate jurisdiction and judicial review of Board cases, employee status under the Act, representation proceedings and employer unfair labor practices.

Speakers: Ruth Burdick, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC
Meredith Jason, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC

10:00 a.m. – 10:15 a.m. Refreshment Break (Ballroom Terrace)

10:15 a.m. – 11:15 a.m. “C” Case Review
The Associate General Counsel – Division of Advice will discuss significant ULP cases decided by the Board in 2019.

Speaker: Richard A. Bock, Associate General Counsel – Division of Advice, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC

11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. What Comes Next? The Duty to Bargain After Johnson Controls, Ridgewood Health and GVS Properties
Once a union obtains the right to bargain on behalf employees, that right does not necessarily continue indefinitely and uninterrupted. Anticipatory withdrawal of union recognition when the agreement is due to expire (Johnson Controls) and the purchase of a unionized plant by a new employer (Ridgewood Health, GVS Properties) both provide opportunity for an employer to implement new terms and conditions of employment—under certain circumstances. The speakers will discuss those circumstances in detail, and the applicable standards for permissible unilateral changes, and whether the NLRB current positions on these matters is sound labor policy.

Speakers: Lori Armstrong Halber, Reed Smith LLP, Philadelphia, PA
Adrian Healy, International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, Its Territories and Canada (I.A.T.S.E.), New York, NY

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4

7:00 a.m. – 8:00 a.m. Breakfast Buffet (Ballroom Terrace)

7:00 a.m. – 8:00 a.m. Diversity and Inclusion Breakfast (Bennett 1)

8:00 a.m. – 9:15 a.m. Is Emily Post Now Required Reading on the Shop Floor? Protected Concerted Activity After Alstate Maintenance, Greyhound Bus, Quicken and Electrolux (Grand Ballroom AB)
In the past year, the NLRB has thoroughly examined and re-drawn the line separating a personal complaint or “mere gripe,” from statements made on behalf of employees within a bargaining unit constituting protected activity under the NLRA. The speakers will address these changes, and how both unions and employers should now judge employee action.

Antonia Domingo, United Steel, Paper & Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial & Service Workers International Union (USW), Pittsburgh, PA

9:15 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. Update from the Office of the General Counsel: 2019 Enforcement Developments and 2020 Planned Initiatives
The General Counsel will provide a review of enforcement developments in the past year and an outlook on initiatives planned for 2020.

Speakers: Hon. Peter B. Robb, General Counsel, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC
Alice B. Stock, Deputy General Counsel, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC

10:30 a.m. – 10:45 a.m. Refreshment Break (Ballroom Terrace)

10:45 a.m. – 11:45 a.m. “R” Case Review: Discussion of Recent Issues Arising in Bargaining Unit Elections under Section 9 of the Act
Terence Schoone-Jongen will lead a discussion of recent issues arising in bargaining unit elections under Section 9 of the National Labor Relations Act.

Speaker: Terence Schoone-Jongen, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, DC
