Panel Title: Protecting Your Employees from Harm while Accommodating Mental Illness – Are Employers in a Bind?

Panelist Biography: Brian J. LaClair

Brian J. LaClair is an associate at Blitman & King LLP in Syracuse, New York. He represents private and public sector labor unions, multi-employer benefit plans, and individual employees in a broad variety of labor and employment matters.

Brian’s practice focuses on litigation in federal and state court and before administrative agencies, proceedings before the National Labor Relations Board, and labor arbitrations. Brian also provides pro bono representation to indigent persons seeking unemployment insurance benefits.

Prior to joining Blitman & King LLP, Brian was an associate in the litigation department at a major international law firm in New York City. Before that, Brian served as law clerk to the Honorable David N. Hurd, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of New York.

Brian received a bachelor’s degree in history from the University of Rochester in 2002, and graduated magna cum laude from the Syracuse University College of Law in 2006, where he served as an Associate Notes Editor of the Syracuse Law Review.

Brian resides in his hometown of Syracuse with his wife Kate and their children Genevieve and Joseph.