Dear ABA Day Registrants,

In conjunction with your upcoming participation in ABA Day events during the week of April 9, we are pleased to inform you of a unique opportunity arranged for this year’s attendees on April 12.

The ABA Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress, working with the Law Library of Congress, invites you to take part in a special visit to our nation’s Law Library of Congress. The largest law library in the world, the Law Library of Congress offers an unparalleled repository of legal knowledge along with specialists dedicated to helping you access its vast resources.

This LLC visit has been designed exclusively for ABA Day registrants. The tour agenda includes:

- A docent-led tour of the impressive Thomas Jefferson Building;
- Welcome from Jane Sánchez, Law Librarian of Congress;
- An overview of the Law Library of Congress;
- A tour of the renovated Law Library Reading Room (which includes the “Magna Carta: Enduring Legacy 1215-2015” traveling exhibit, developed through a collaboration between the American Bar Association Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress and the Library of Congress); and
- A rare book presentation given by Nathan Dorn, Rare Book Curator

The visit begins at 2:00 pm, running approximately two hours, and capacity is limited to 25 persons. We hope that your schedule will allow you to take advantage of all or even a portion of this opportunity, and we welcome you to the nation’s capital. To register, please complete the RSVP form and return it to Jinny Choi, jinny.choi@americanbar.org by Friday, April 6.

Sincerely,

Sheila Slocum Hollis, Chair
Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress
