Military Legal Assistance Issues:
Consumer Law, Financial Issues, and Helping Military Communities
3.0 Credit Hours of CLE has been requested

WHAT: This afternoon session will address consumer protection issues facing our military and veterans that are related to charities, debt and credit, benefits, and housing, along with financial issues. It will also provide an overview of the Florida Attorney General’s Military and Veterans Assistance Program (MVAP), and how legal organizations can address the needs of our military and veteran communities separately and through collaborative partnerships.

WHO: This is designed for military attorneys working in legal assistance as well as civilian lawyers whose practices involve military-connected clients or issues.
