PUBLIC INTEREST CAREERS FOR LAWYERS:
FROM ADVOCACY TO REPRESENTATION, TO POLICY DEVELOPMENT AND BEYOND

Friday, August 5, 2011
12:00 to 1:30 p.m.
Sheraton Hall E, Lower Concourse Level, Sheraton Toronto
Toronto, Ontario, Canada

 This luncheon/panel is a complimentary ticketed event for Law Student Division members registered for the Annual Meeting. Please inquire at the Law Student Division Registration Desk (Concourse Level, Sheraton Toronto) for tickets, available on a first come, first served basis. **

The practice of public interest law encompasses the protection of individual rights, the advancement of justice, and making improvements for the good of the general public. All of these important objectives can be accomplished through a variety of means and in many settings. Our expert panel, all of whom have developed successful and meaningful careers in the public interest/public service areas of the law featuring experiences ranging from working on the Hill, direct representation, advocacy roles, and problem solving courts. The panelists will share their own career paths and experiences, including some non-traditional opportunities, such as lobbying and working in the legislative branch of the government to interested attorneys and law students.

Moderator
Elizabeth M. Yang
Deputy Director, ABA Division for Public Services, Washington, DC

Panelists
Carmen Daugherty
Deputy Director of Programs, Advocates for Justice and Education, Inc., Washington, DC

Antonia K. Fasanelli
Executive Director, Homeless Persons Representation Project, Baltimore, MD

Kristi Gaines
Legislative Counsel, ABA Governmental Affairs Office, Washington, DC

Renato Izquieta
Staff Attorney, Legal Aid Society of Orange County, Santa Ana, CA