Things To Do Washington, DC
2019 May Tax Meeting

Passport DC May 1 - 31, 2019
Passport DC is a month-long journey around the world highlighting DC’s thriving international diplomatic community and its lively and varied culture. Among the events scheduled for May 2019:
* Pre-Passport DC Event: International Children’s Festival
* European Month of Culture, May 1-31
* Flower Mart at National Cathedral, May 3 and 4
* Around the World Embassy Tour, May 4
* European Union Embassies' Open House, May 11
Each embassy will open their doors to the public from 10 am until 4 pm, offering a rare look inside the buildings. The day will provide a unique opportunity to experience the country’s cultural heritage and national traditions including authentic music, dance, food, film, and art of 28 distinctive nations. There is no charge to participate in the European Union Embassies Open House and tickets are not required. It is recommended that you take a form of government-issued identification with you.
* Fiesta Asian Street Festival, May 18

The National Portrait Gallery
8th and F Streets NW (.3 miles from hotel, 6 min walk)
Through the visual arts, performing arts, and new media, the Portrait Gallery presents people of remarkable character and achievement whose lives form our national identity.

Bloom: Flowers from the Archives of American Art
This exhibition features sketches and drawings of flowers providing a fascinating opportunity to examine flowers from both an artistic and scientific point of view.

Votes for Women: A Portrait of Persistence
This exhibit reveals the women and organizations often overlooked in the complex narrative of women’s suffrage in the United States.

National Museum of Natural History
10th St. & Constitution Ave. NW (.5 miles from hotel, 11 min walk)
Compare and contrast the skeletons of flying fish, a massive sea turtle, a giraffe, monkeys, and many more vertebrates in Bone Hall. Walk through the butterfly pavilion filled with tropical plants and live, flittering butterflies. Dig in to unearth the secrets of our planet’s gems, minerals, rocks, earthquakes, and volcanoes in the Hall of Geology, Gems, and Minerals.

Nature's Best Photography: Windland Smith Rice International Awards
This exhibition presents breathtaking fine art prints and short videos highlighting the best of nature photography.
Union Market
1309 5th St NE (2.0 miles from hotel, 10 min drive)
An authentic market of culture and commerce. A gourmet food hall and true gathering place that serves as an inviting melting pot of old world heritage and new world opportunities. The open concept market is home to more than 36 local and regional food and drink vendors, eateries, rotating pop-ups, and a busy calendar of activities for all ages, plus craft fairs, festivals, and seasonal celebrations. Vendors include: Masseria, one of DC’s first Michelin-starred Italian restaurants and Almala farms, the freshest local produce from tomatoes, peaches, okra, grapes and more harvested on Abedalelah Almaala’s Eastern Shore farms.

The National Museum of American History
1300 Constitution Ave NW (.7 miles from hotel, 7 min drive)
The museum presents America’s history in all of its complexity. Its collection features more than three million artifacts, from President Abraham Lincoln’s top hat to sheet music written by DC legend Duke Ellington. The women who stood by the side of our nation’s leaders are memorialized in The First Ladies, which boasts more than two dozen gowns, fine china and other furnishings. The American Culture exhibit features Dorothy's Ruby Slippers from The Wizard of Oz and a New York Yankee Stadium ticket booth. The Superheroes exhibit showcases George Reeves’s Superman costume, and Halle Berry’s Storm costume from the 2014 film X-Men: Days of Future Past.

The National Museum of African American History and Culture
1400 Constitution Avenue, NW (.6 miles from hotel, 7 min drive)
The National Museum of African American History and Culture is devoted exclusively to the documentation of African American life, history, and culture. Advance Timed Passes and same-day online timed passes are required for entry before 1pm and on the weekends. Special Exhibition: Watching Oprah Featuring original artifacts from Harpo Studios in Chicago, home of The Oprah Winfrey Show, along with other items from the personal collection of Oprah Winfrey. Photographs and video illuminate key topics in regard to race, gender and the mass media.
