ADR and Conflict Management Task Force and ABA Dispute Resolution Section
Use Mediation To Take Some of the Fight Out of Peer Review Battles

Member Benefit Webinar

Tuesday, February 21, 2017
12 noon – 1 PM CT
Today’s Discussion

- John D. Harwell, Attorney at Law, and Of Counsel, Cohen & Lord, California: jdh@harwellapc.com

  Attorney, Peer Review Hearing Officer, Health Care Mediator will discuss his experience mediating peer review matters, and provide advice about accessing peer review mediation, its benefits and constraints

- Michael L. Goodman, Goodman Allen Donnelly, PLLC Virginia: mgoodman@goodmanallen.com

  Healthcare and Defense Attorney will discuss the various risks and benefits to the physician/client evaluating entry into the mediation of a peer review matter

- Jeanne F. Franklin, FranklinSolutions, Virginia: jfranklin@franklinsolutions.net

  Healthcare Attorney, Mediator, Facilitator will introduce the subject and moderate the discussion
Agenda

- Introduction: Context for considering mediating peer review issues
- Presentation of examples of peer review mediation; tips and lessons
- Discussion of questions about bringing one’s client into mediation of a peer review issue
- Interactive discussion of selected remaining issues
- Audience questions