The 19th Amendment Then and Now: Lessons for the 21st Century (CLE)
2019 Annual Meeting – San Francisco Marriott Marquis, San Francisco, CA
Yerba Buena Salons 10 & 11
Friday, August 9 | 2 - 3:30pm

The Centennial of the 19th Amendment provides the legal profession the opportunity to celebrate 100 years of women's constitutional right to vote, educate the public about the Nineteenth Amendment and the battle for women's suffrage, and promote laws that ensure women's full and equal exercise of their right to vote and to participate in our democracy.

This panel discussion will use the Centennial as the point of entry to explore the legacies of the Amendment and engage in provocative conversations about how to ensure full and equal exercise of the right to vote for all.

Moderator
Pete Williams, NBC News Justice Correspondent, Washington, DC

Speakers
Harmeet K. Dhillon, Founder & Senior Partner, Dhillon Law Group, Inc.; Former vice chairwoman of the California Republican Party; and the National Committeewoman of the Republican National Committee for California, San Francisco, CA
Daniel R. Ortiz, Michael J. & Jane R. Horvitz Distinguished Professor of Law and Director, Supreme Court Litigation Clinic, University of Virginia Law School, Charlottesville, VA
Sherrilyn Ifill, President and Director-Counsel, NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, New York, NY

Co-Sponsors
Section of Civil Rights and Social Justice | Standing Committee on Election Law | Division for Public Education | Office of the President | Commission on Women in the Profession | Coalition on Racial and Ethnic Justice | Section of State & Local Government Law | Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress