RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association urges federal, state, local, territorial and tribal legislative bodies and governmental agencies to enact laws and adopt policies prohibiting the use of solitary confinement – the involuntary placement alone in a cell, room or other area for any reason other than as a temporary response to behavior that threatens immediate harm and ends when the threat is over and, in no case, more than 4 hours – of children and youth under age 18.