O'Brien v. Leegin: Perspectives on State-Law Resale Price Maintenance Actions

February 6, 2013
12:30-1:45 EST

This program will generally consider economic theories of harm in vertical price fixing actions, and will specifically address the use of state resale price maintenance laws in light of the outcome in the Kansas Supreme Court's O'Brien v. Leegin decision. Discussion promises to be lively, as the panelists include lead plaintiff and defense counsel from O'Brien, as well as a noted economist and a state enforcer.
