TIPS is designed with you in mind. We want you to get the most out of your membership - it should provide value to you and your career. Here are some of the many ways you can use TIPS to your advantage:

Get Involved
TIPS has more than 30 general committees, each of which is practice-specific, that provide a variety of involvement and networking opportunities. You may join as many committees as you like to stay abreast of new developments, acquire new practice methods, and meet others who share your professional interests.

Take the Lead
Involvement can lead to an appointed position within TIPS leadership, focusing on initiatives such as membership, long-range planning, technology, publications, plaintiff involvement, and outreach to law students and young lawyers. There are numerous opportunities in general committees to take a leadership role.

Share Your Expertise
TIPS offers speaking opportunities at more than 50 CLE programs, which give you and your firm valuable recognition and a chance to share your insights with your peers. You can also write articles for committee newsletters, develop programming, and speak at industry events.

Enhance Your Insights
With a TIPS membership, you can take advantage of our five CLE series, “Member Mondays,” which offers free CLE teleconferences and webinars. You also have access to our impressive audio and publications library, and you can attend our Annual Section CLE Conference, where we offer more than 24 hours of top-notch CLE programming.
