Learning to Lead: What Really Works for Women in Law

Mary B. Cranston, Advisor

Gindi Eckel Vincent, Author
CONTENTS

From the Chair of the ABA Commission on Women in the Profession vii

Prologue ix

Chapter 1: Understanding the Lay of the Land—The Statistics on Working and Leading Women 1

Chapter 2: The Men, The Myths, The Legends—Understanding Myths and Stereotypes 7

Chapter 3: What We Know—What the Experts Tell Us about Women Leaders 13

Chapter 4: How Does It All Work—Applying What We Know to Women in Law 23
  Be True to Yourself 26
  Be Optimistic 29
  Take Risks 32
  Chart Your Course 37
  Have a Vision (and Communicate It) 40
  Build Relationships (Including Mentors) 45
  Toot Your Own Horn 49
  Speak Up 51

Chapter 5: Insight from the Top—Interviews with Legal Leaders 57

Chapter 6: View from the Bench—Interviews with the Judiciary 77

Chapter 7: Total Leadership Makeover—Transforming Real-Life Lawyers 97

Conclusion 113

Appendices 114

Author Biography 119

Advisor Biography 121

About the ABA Commission on Women in the Profession 123

Endnotes 125