

We invite you to attend a FREE CLE program

CITIZENS UNITED:
A UNIQUE JOURNEY THROUGH CAMPAIGN FINANCE - SEPARATING THE LAW FROM THE RHETORIC

Friday, August 6
2:00 pm to 3:30 pm
Room 2024, 2nd Floor, Moscone Center West

Panelists will outline the tortured history of Supreme Court jurisprudence leading up to the case; the unique procedural posture of the case (involving two distinct phases for briefing and argument); and the strategy of each side before the Justices. The decision itself will be dissected, and the likely consequences will be debated. The panelists will share their unique knowledge of this historic battle before the highest court of the land.

Moderator:

John C. Keeney, Jr.
Hogan Lovells, Washington, DC

Panelists:

Charles Fried
Beneficial Professor of Law, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, MA

Trevor Potter
Caplin & Drysdale, Washington, DC

Scott E. Thomas
Dickstein Shapiro LLP, Washington, DC