

DEVELOPING AND EXAMINING WAYS TO IMPROVE THE FEDERAL ELECTORAL PROCESS
IN ORDER TO PERMIT THE BROADEST, LEAST RESTRICTIVE ACCESS BY AMERICANS TO THE BALLOT BOX

present

HOT TOPICS IN ELECTION LAW

Friday, February 5
2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Suite 7102, 7th Floor, West Wing
Walt Disney World Dolphin
1500 Epcot Resorts Boulevard
Lake Buena Vista, Florida 32830

As we prepare for the 2010 election cycle, please join a roundtable discussion with participants representing federal, state, local and national viewpoints on such issues as modernization of voter registration, current trends in voting rights litigation, the 2010 Census and redistricting, military and overseas voting, the appropriate role of the federal government in elections administered by states and localities, as well as any other topics of interest.

Moderator:

John C. Keeney, Jr., Esq., Partner
Hogan & Hartson, Washington, DC

Panelists:

Michael Ertel, Supervisor of Elections
Seminole County, Sanford, FL

Ion Sancho, Esq., Supervisor of Elections
Leon County, Tallahassee, FL

Benjamin E. Griffith, Esq., Partner
Griffith & Griffith Law Offices, Cleveland, MS

Harvey M. Tettlebaum, Esq., Partner
Husch Blackwell Sanders LLP, Jefferson City, MO

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION
MIDYEAR MEETING
February 3 - 9, 2010

Standing Committee on Election Law
American Bar Association
740 Fifteenth Street, NW
Washington, DC 20005
Email: election@abanet.org
<http://www.abanet.org/publicserv/election>