

ABA Death Penalty Representation Project

Representing a death-sentenced prisoner is one of the most challenging and rewarding pro bono experiences in a legal career. Have you ever wondered whether you have the skills to handle a case and how the experience will benefit you, your practice, and your firm? Please join the Project along with host district court and 7th Circuit federal judges for a special event in Chicago to learn answers to these questions and more.

There is no cost to attend!

Co-Sponsored by the Chicago Bar Association

Date: October 27, 2010, 4-6 p.m.

Location: Ceremonial Courtroom, 25th Floor
Dirksen U.S. Courthouse
219 S. Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois

For more information visit [http://new.abanet.org/
deathpenalty/representationproject/pages/
Chicago2010.aspx](http://new.abanet.org/deathpenalty/representationproject/pages/Chicago2010.aspx)

Formal invitations will follow by mail.

Save The Date
October 27, 2010