

The ABA Immigration Justice Project invites you to attend two-day training program:

Representing Immigrants in Removal Proceedings

Tuesday January 25, 2011, 9am – 5:30pm

Wednesday January 26, 2011, 8:30am – 11:30am

401 B Street, Suite 1700, conference room 17A

The training will include introductory and advanced topics for attorneys representing clients with immigration court cases, including:

- Court procedures
- Bond and custody
- Cancellation of removal
- Adjustment of status
- Asylum, withholding of removal and CAT
- Analyzing criminal convictions

This training will be submitted for 10 hours of CLE credit. It is offered free to individuals who commit to accepting a pro bono case from the Immigration Justice Project within one year of the training. For others, the training will cost $250. Electronic materials will be provided to all participants.

Model Hearing Program

Wednesday January 26, 2010, 1pm – 4pm

San Diego EOIR

This free program, offered in conjunction with the Executive Office of Immigration Review, is an opportunity to be trained in the practice, procedure, and advocacy skills needed to present a case in immigration court. All participants must agree to accept a pro bono case in the coming year.

For registration information, please contact Liz Sweet at sweete@staff.abanet.org.
