

The Administration of EU Competition Law: Trans-Atlantic Perspective

This panel will examine the administration of EU competition law and will compare and contrast it with the administrative structure of U.S. antitrust enforcement. It will be Friday October 22, 2004 running from 2:00-3:45. The panelist will discuss:

Alastair Sutton, White and Case: EU-US cooperation in competition policy following the Supreme Court's ruling in Intel v. AMD (discovery of documents under US Statute 1782).

Richard Wainwright, Principle Legal Advisor, European Commission: Judicial review in EU competition law.

Merit Janow, Professor in the Practice of International Economic Law & International Affairs at Columbia University: Comparing US and EU competition policy and commenting on bilateral and global cooperation.

Makan Delrahim, Deputy Assistant Attorney General for International Enforcement, DOJ Antitrust Division: EU/US cooperation in investigating mergers and in investigating and prosecuting cartels.

You may wish to communicate about the panels.

Makan Delrahim: makan.Delrahim@usdoj.gov,

Merit Janow: mj60@columbia.edu,

Richard Wainwright: Richard.Wainwright@cec.eu.int.,

Alastair Sutton: asutton@whitecase.com