HOWARD S. DAKOFF

hdakoff@lplegal.com

Howard S. Dakoff is an equity partner in the Chicago-based law firm of Levenfeld Pearlstein, LLC and concentrates his practice in condominium, real estate, and general corporate law. Howard is the firm's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Officer and has served on the firm's Environmental Task Force and Green Development Initiative. His passion for the environment coupled with his commitment to the success of the firm and helping the Chicago community made him a natural choice to be the firm's first CSR Officer.

Howard has visited glaciers, tropical rainforests, corral reefs and mountains on six Continents and has trekked to the summits of Mt. Kilimanjaro and Mt. Rainier. Howard has authored numerous articles on green initiatives and financial incentives for real estate owners and a corporate social responsibility program for law firms. He was instrumental in Levenfeld Pearlstein successfully implementing its sustainability commitments.
