

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Pamela McDevitt

Pamela is currently the Director of the ABA Law Practice Management Section. She has been with the ABA since April of 2010. Pamela was with the New York State Bar Association as Director of Law Practice Management for four years prior to coming to the ABA. In that capacity, she has developed a variety of continuing legal education programs, re-designed the State Bar's Law Practice Management and Solo Practice Web pages, coordinated the development of practice-oriented books, and developed numerous articles and publications. Prior to joining the State Bar, she practiced law in a small firm for nine years, following a term of service as a Captain in the United States Army JAG Corps.
