AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

ADOPTED BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

February 12, 2007

RECOMMENDATION

RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association urges that any legislative or executive branch actions addressed to federal review of foreign investments in the U.S. to protect legitimate national security concerns should:

1. Seek to enact new legislation only where existing statutory authority does not adequately allow for the protection of a legitimate national security concern.

2. Respect the discretionary authority of the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States ("CFIUS") and avoid rigid definitions that cannot be adjusted to meet changing circumstances.

3. Ensure that the CFIUS process for determining whether a proposed acquisition poses a threat to the security of the United States is expeditious, confidential, and final.

4. Ensure that the CFIUS process focuses on assessments of potential threats to national security and does not become a vehicle for economic protectionism.

5. Respect settled constitutional principles on the separation of powers doctrine and avoid direct Congressional involvement in deciding individual cases.
