

Section of International Law and Practice (Midyear Meeting 1984)

BE IT RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association favors the government of the United States of America taking appropriate measures leading the General Assembly of the United Nations to adopt the principle that in all the organs and specialized agencies of the United Nations, all nations having a population of over 200 million would be automatically entitled to representation on an equal basis with various regional blocs.