BE IT RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association recommends that a special high-level working group within the United States government be established by the President, in consultation with Congress, to determine:

(b) what steps should be taken to make these changes and clarifications acceptable to other nations; and

(c) by what procedures these changes and clarifications can best be introduced into or attached to the Convention.