

Section of International Law (Midyear Meeting 1974)

BE IT RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association approves and supports the inclusion of the following principles in any legislation relating to the renewal of the President's international trade negotiating authority:

(1) improved domestic procedures to ensure an adequate opportunity to be heard for all interested parties in the trade negotiating process and related actions; and

(2) revision of international economic agreements, such as the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, so as to improve institutions and procedures for the peaceful resolution of disputes and for the conduct of trade and economic relations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the President of the American Bar Association or his designee is authorized to communicate the position of the Association, as set forth in the foregoing Resolution, to the appropriate governmental agencies and Congressional committees.
