2011 Judy M. Weightman Memorial Public Interest Award Criteria

Deadline for Receipt: April 1, 2011

The Law Student Division Public Interest Award serves as a testament to Professor Judy M. Weightman of the William S. Richardson School of Law at the University of Hawaii who, before losing her battle with breast cancer in 1998, demonstrated her passion for justice and tirelessly advocated on behalf of minorities and the poor. This award recognizes law students and law schools who have made outstanding contributions to underrepresented groups or public interest causes outside the law school and/or in public service at the law school.

ELIGIBILITY

ABA-approved law schools, their law students and law school organizations.
