

Standing Committee on Law and National Security
740 15th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20005

September 5, 2008

Dear Colleague:

Stewart A. Baker, past Chair of the ABA Standing Committee on Law and National Security and Assistant Secretary for Policy, United States Department of Homeland Security, will speak to the Standing Committee at our next breakfast meeting on Thursday, September 25, 2008. The breakfast will begin at 8:00 a.m. and will be held at the University Club, 1135 16th Street, NW in Washington, DC.

Assistant Secretary Baker has commented that policies pursued by the US in two key areas - terrorist communication and financing - provide background for the current debate about terrorist travel. He will share his "thoughts on a national strategy to combat terrorist travel" as well as discuss transition planning at DHS on September 25.

The charge for this breakfast is $25.00. Reservations must be made in advance. Checks made payable to "ABA" may be enclosed with the response card and returned by September 23. If you are bringing guests, please note their names on the card. In the event you need to cancel your reservation, a refund will be made provided notice of cancellation is received in our office by September 23. There is no charge for members of the press.

We look forward to welcoming you back to the new Committee year on Thursday, September 25.

Sincerely,

Albert C. Harvey
Chair
